

Call Obamacare 1 800 F-UCKYO

As you know in Bible prophecy the Antichrist has a number assigned to him by Almighty God and it's known as the number of the Beast and that number is 666. And our own Barack Obama is a precursor of the Antichrist: he is the Leopard as found in Daniel, chapter 7, verse number 6, and the question is, does he also have a number assigned to him?

As you may have heard by now, it was on the Drudge Report, Rush Limbaugh reported it and so on, the Health and Human Services has a number that you call to get information from the Obama administration about his healthcare plan. Let's take a look at that satanic number because the Health and Human Services picked out a very evil number to represent the Obama administration.

As you know, most organizations when they pick out an 800 number, they choose letters that represent them, for example, you might assume that the Health and Human Services would pick out a number that said 1-800 get health or 1-800 be healthy or something like that. That is so people don't have to remember a number, they remember a phrase instead. So let's look at the phrase which Health and Human Services want you to remember in order to call them about Obamacare: the actual phone number to get information about Obamacare is, 1-800-318-2596.

If you have a telephone, you know those numbers are associated with letters and where as you might expect the letters might spell out "get well" or some such slogan, let's see what they actually spell. For the number 3, you could have an F, now there is no letter assigned to the number 1, so I'll just put a dot there, and the rest of the numbers are fairly easy to spell out. I think you get the idea of what the Obama administration thinks of you, and it's a very easy slogan to remember. I do think it might be a little racist because the YO at the end really should be YOU.

If you think this is accidental, there's a bridge in Brooklyn you might be interested in. That is no accident: it is planned. The Obama administration does not have a very good opinion of you, the American public. So this is the new number, a new number for the beast. Of course, this may just be another gigantic hoax from the Obama administration, I mean they also had the American Eagle upside down on their Twitter page. For those of us who know Bible prophecy, Barack Obama's number in Daniel is 444, but now the White House has given us another number to remember Barack Obama by.
