

Sunday Law is not the Mark of the Beast

I want to respond to a couple of comments I received on my recent videos and one of them is from Mimi B and she is obviously a Seventh Day Adventist and the false prophets in that denomination are leading you and everyone else astray. And this is very sad because there are eighteen million Seventh Day Adventists and they are telling you a lie about what constitutes the mark of the beast and you will all be damned to Hell if you take the true mark of the beast. Your false prophets are not telling you what that mark is.

And here's what she writes: "It's the soul that goes to heaven or hell and that suffers torture or paradise. The chip is not able to mark, touch or affect the soul as it's invisible." Well, you are wrong there, Mimi. There are many things you can take into the body that does affect the soul. What if you want to take cyanide and commit suicide? That's a grave evil; that's murder of one's self. What if you want to ingest heroin or cocaine or any drug? Then you are damaging your own body and also your soul, so that is incorrect. A chip can be very evil indeed and, as John writes in Revelation, it will destroy your soul.

"Several people have taken the chip already. They have not pledged their soul to the devil or this would have been told." Well, the definition of the mark which causes your soul to go to Hell is that you will not be able to buy or sell without it. Now, you can put things into your body that are good, for example, pacemakers, so just the melding of technology with the human body does not in and of itself constitute a great evil. But it will if it causes you to be unable to buy or sell.

I know the Seventh Day Adventists claim that Sunday Law means you won't be able to buy or sell on Sunday. Well, what about Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday? So, that cannot be the mark of the beast because you could buy or sell any other day. With the real mark of the beast, you won't be able to buy or sell at all. You will be under the control the One World Government.

And here Mimi continues: "The truth lies in the Ten Commandments and faith in Jesus to repent of sin. Break the commandments of God and you go to Hell, no chip can do this. Check Deuteronomy for an explanation on God's mark in the front of the eyes and the right hand. Check the Sabbath day being changed by the Catholic Church in the first century. You will get a more informed view of what the mark of the beast is." Sunday Law is not the mark of the beast, Mimi. The early Christians had the authority to change the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday just as they changed the laws on circumcision and they changed the laws on eating pork. Peter specifically was given a vision that he had that authority and he did change the laws and the early Christian did change the law and Christians for almost two thousand years have now celebrated the Sabbath on Sunday and that is, of course, to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

And now, I got another very important and very interesting comment from DanielJohn2300 and, in fact, I recommend that you visit his channel because he has many interesting videos. And here's what he wrote: "Whenever I am reminded of the 'Saints before the throne who wash their robes white in the blood of the Lamb,' (Revelation 7:14), and we went over that in the last video,, 'I remember the souls under the altar who are given robes that are already white (Revelation 6:11). Those souls, as I have contended all along, are the souls of aborted babies and they are under the altar because they are victims of human sacrifice. 'This means that the Saints before the throne lived long enough to sin,' very good point, 'and the souls under the altar did not.' Again, I agree with you very much, Daniel2300. You are right on the mark. 'I believe that the souls under the altar have to stay there until the earth dwellers stop killing them because the word rest implies no movement.' Well, that's interesting, that could be. 'This is why I include the souls under the altar among those that I pray for every November.' Well, that is a wonderful thing to do.

Regarding the souls under the altar, let's read about what they say in chapter 6, verses 9-10, "And when he had opened the fifth seal," (if I'm right about these souls being aborted babies, then Jesus has already opened the fifth seal), "I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the Word of God and for the testimony which they held." It's interesting they are slain for the testimony which they held, not for the testimony which they proclaim. That's another indication that these babies were not allowed to grow into adulthood and proclaim the testimony which they held. "...And they cried with a loud voice saying: how long, O Lord, holy and true dost thou not judge and revenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth." Notice these 55 million aborted babies in heaven are asking God for vengeance. They are not praying for the United States of America or any other degenerate western country that allows abortion. They are praying for our destruction. That should give all Americans tremendous pause to think of what is going to bring about our downfall.

And verse number 11: "And white robes were given to every one of them and it was said to them that they should rest for a little while till their fellow servants and their brethren who are to be slain even as they should be filled up." Now, the servants are a specific group in this passage. When John speaks about servants, he is talking about the Converted Jews and he says "and their brethren". Brethren is plural. He is speaking there of the other three groups: the Raptured Protestants, the Protected Catholics and the holy martyrs as he explains later. "...And in her was found," and now this is chapter 18:24, "the blood of prophets and of saints and all who were slain upon the earth." So, "the prophets", that refers to the raptured Protestants, "the saints" specifically refers to the protected Catholic and, of course, those who were "slain upon the earth" refers to the holy martyrs.

You see the sad thing about this is that these four groups, who have been aborted, could have survived into the great Millennium, as I have said all along. These are representatives of the four surviving groups and this is why they seek vengeance upon the rest of us especially here in the United States. We have denied them the opportunity to live during the Millennium. It is obvious why they are very angry and we are going to suffer the results of God's vengeance upon all of us here, especially in America.

And we read about God's vengeance in verses number 1 and 2 of chapter 19: "After these things I heard as it were the voice of many people in heaven saying: Alleluia, salvation and glory and power is to our God, for true and just are his judgments who hath judged the great harlot." So we find out that the judgment upon Babylon, that is our own decadent west, is primarily caused by abortion, "which corrupted the earth with her fornication and hath revenged the blood of his servants at her hands." That's a specific reference back to chapter 6, verse 10, where the aborted babies cry out for vengeance and in chapter 19, their prayers are answered!. And so, in conclusion my friends, we need to ask how much longer is God going to put off this judgment? And I believe we have very few days, weeks, possibly months, left. We all need to prepare immediately
