

Israel Bible Prophecy in a Google Doodle

Today I want to take a look at yesterday's "Google Doodle" which celebrated, supposedly, the opening of the Eiffel Tower in Paris 126 years ago. However, on this program, I'm going to point out that this image actually has a much more sinister meaning and they are rather celebrating the future destruction of Israel as found in Bible Prophecy.

For those of you who may not be aware, on a Google web page they very often show their Google logo hidden in some kind of artistic rendering and the image for yesterday showed construction of the Eiffel Tower, supposedly, as I say. I believe we are going to find that it is actually a support for the goal of the Antichrist and the One World Government for the nation of Israel.

And we are going to discover in this Google Doodle a lot of 6's, as very often is found in Google Doodles, and of course, that is the number of Satan and his Antichrist.

Looking at the image's composition, right down the center from top right to lower left, we see a large beam which divides the painting roughly in half and also serves as a fraction line. On the left hand side we see 6 straight beams and, of course, that would symbolize Satan and the Antichrist. On the right we see a curved truss and that would indicate Almighty God and this picture verifies that with the "o n e" formed out go the last three letters of "google". If you look at the Groxt channel, he analyzes a lot of Google Doodles, and he also pointed that out in his analysis of this picture. I disagree with most of the rest of his analysis, however.

In addition to the six beams on the left we see that the first G of Google looks also very much like a 6 and of course we will see that there are 6 painters here, so already we have seen at least three 6's. But the most significant expression of the number 6, is on the 3 paint cans which if you look closely actually show the Hebrew letter "vav". As you can see, the paint just so happened to drip on the side of each can in the shape of a number 7 which is actually the Hebrew letter vav and that indicates the number 6 because vav is the sixth letter in the Hebrew alphabet and therefore we see another expression of 666.

Now, actually there are a total of five vavs in this image because you'll see that one of the workers on the top left has a 7 around his waist and the worker on the far right has a sideways 7 but nonetheless, those all indicate vavs and that gives a total of 2 vavs on the left and 3 vavs on the right and of course that symbolizes  $2/3$ , that's the purpose of that beam in the center, giving you that fraction sign, and 2 over 3 yields the decimal .666. This is not accidental people.

Whoever drew this Google Doodle knew exactly what he was doing. He was giving you many expressions of the Antichrist and so we see many manifestations of 666 not only in the three paint cans but also in the fraction and in fact we saw that with the 6 straight beams on the left indicating the Antichrist and Satan and the word "one" on the right indicating Almighty God, in other words, Satan over God.

And we see another expression if you take a close look at the rivets because there are 6 rivets above that center painter, 6 below, 66 in other words, and just to the left of that at an angle, it's hard to see, but there are a pair of 4 rivets. In other words 44 to the left of 66 and 44 over 66 also yields the decimal .666. None of this is accidental people.

Now, the next part may be accidental. The artist may not have known what he was doing but then again, he may have known. Take a closer look at that skyline. Is that the skyline of Paris? In other words, from the Eiffel Tower or is that the skyline of Jerusalem?

He shows two major buildings on the right, a dome-like building and what looks like perhaps a church-like building.

Yes, this could be Paris and if look at this photo of Paris there is a large dome-type building and a church-type building.

But, if we look at a photo of Jerusalem we also see the Dome of the Rock, the Al Aqsa mosque, that would be a gold dome, and a church-type structure. I submit to you that in this Google Doodle what we are actually observing is a view of Jerusalem and not of Paris; but why would this be?

Let's turn this Google Doodle upside down and look at it the way Satan would and I think we are going to see a much more sinister meaning to this Google Doodle.

In this upside down view those two buildings take on a much more ominous form. They look like bombs falling out of the sky, maybe ICBM's falling on Jerusalem. Even those three paint cans viewed upside down look like bombs or at least like bullets. Could it be that the Illuminati have a completely different plan for Jerusalem since they were unable to defeat Benjamin Netanyahu at the ballot? Are they going to defeat him by bullets? And is that what this Google Doodle is prophesying?

So why do I think that skyline indicates Jerusalem rather than Paris? Well, first of all, the three paint cans show the Hebrew letter vav and of course that indicates 666; but we also see four workers on the left and two on the right. That also indicates Israel. Remember in 2 Kings, where the two she bears come out of the woods and maul those 42 youths. The 2 she bears symbolize Russia and Iran in these End Times. The 42 youths who made fun of the Prophet Elisha symbolize the modern Nation of Israel and therefore, we see at least two indications that this Google Doodle is a prophecy about the End Times destruction of Israel as prophesied in both Daniel and Zechariah and as far as that goes, in the Psalm 83 war.

So why would the Google Doodlers hide their prophecies? I mean I give basically the same bible prophecies except based on Scripture. The reason is because they support the goals of the Antichrist and the New World Order. They want to see Iran get nuclear weapons. They want to see a Palestinian State. They want to see the division of Jerusalem, and as I said, if they can't achieve their goal by ballots they will achieve it through bullets.

And another thing: this Google Doodle will never tell you is how to thwart the plans of the Antichrist and Satan; and as I have told you many times on this program, Jesus' weapon to defeat the Antichrist is Mary's Rosary as prophesied way back in Genesis 3:15. There are three Mysteries of the Rosary and 15 decades. That numerology is not accidental any more than the numerology in this Google Doodle is accidental.
