

Serena Williams' Wedding Crash is Prophetic

Earlier this week, one of my faithful subscribers by the name of Mordecai sent me a very interesting email. He said I should look into last weekend's event where the tennis star, Serena Williams, crashed a wedding party wearing only a skimpy swimsuit. And I looked it over and I agreed with him. This is a prophecy from Almighty God about the destruction of the United States, about the destruction of Israel, and the destruction of Christianity.

However, the story does contain nudity; and that's why I am showing this image of Adam and Eve because there is nudity in the Bible and we shouldn't shy away from it. It's a fact of life and here's some pictures of David and Bathsheba. They're also in Scripture. Bathsheba's nudity led to David's downfall, and also we see pictures of Susanna and the elders. Nudity almost always leads to big, big problems.

Mordecai and I have been exchanging emails all this week discussing the prophetic aspects of this event where Serena Williams, a world-class athlete, crashed a wedding party wearing only a leopard print swimsuit. So I thought I would read some of these headlines and let's see what you think about this. This is from the New York Daily News: 'Serena Williams crashes Miami Beach wedding in leopard print swimsuit. The tennis star shared photos of herself crashing a wedding on Saturday while wearing a daring one-piece.'

The reason it was 'daring' is because it totally exposed her butt. 'The tennis star took to Instagram, Saturday, to show her crashing a wedding while hitting up Miami Beach. On Saturday, the 32-year-old hit the beach in a leopard print swimsuit and came upon a wedding party. "Wedding crasher!" (notice these words by Serena herself) "Congrats!" Williams captioned the photo of her posing with the bride and groom.

Williams' animal print, one-piece, was a stark contrast to the wedding parties all white garb and the newlyweds seemed tickled to have their nuptials crashed by the tennis dynamo. The star seemed taken with her swimwear (yes, it's very important, her swimwear) which she dubbed a leotard swimsuit (what is a leotard swimsuit?)...posting several photos of herself wearing the suit including a photo shown from the back (that's because she exposed her back) which she captioned "Just Right". Or I would add, maybe 'Just Wrong'.

Here's the headline from ABC News: 'Serena Williams Crashed Wedding Wearing Leopard Print Leotard' and here's Black Sports Online: 'Serena Williams Crashes Party in Swimsuit.' Ordinarily, I would just consider this another publicity stunt where a celebrity female exposes her body in public to gain even more publicity, however, I made a list of the ten very strange aspects of this story and when you put them all together, I think you will agree with me: Almighty God is using this event to give prophecy about the United States, about Israel, and about Christianity.

Let's go over these ten aspects of the story. If you, for example, were going to plan a wedding reception, would you plan it for the beach? This is not unheard of but that's the first unusual aspect of this story. Number 2: They were not wearing swimsuits at this wedding reception on the beach; they were wearing white tuxedos. Number 3: Let's say you're putting on this wedding reception on the beach and there just happens to be a few yards away frolicking on the beach a world-class athlete: the number one ranked female tennis player in the world who last year won a gold medal at the Olympics. Are you beginning to realize that there is a lot of coincidences in this story. Number 4: This world-class athlete crashes your reception. Well, according to the story, they did send someone over to ask her if she wanted her to attend and she was more than happy to come over but she herself said that she was 'crashing the party' and that's an interesting word that she used.

Number 5: This world class athlete comes to your party in her swimsuit. She did not put on a dress. She had a dress available.

This dress could have been worn by Serena but she did not. She came to the party wearing her swimsuit. Number 6: This was a leopard print swimsuit. Who does that remind you of? Number 7: This swimsuit bares her butt but covers her arms. Now this is really the oddest part of this whole story and I'm not going to show you the pictures where Serena totally bares her butt. You can do the research yourself and I would advise you not to but I had to so I really can't tell you not to but of course, the fact that she covers her arms and exposes her butt is very strange, very odd and very significant as far as the prophecy goes.

And number 8: The party crasher then takes over. Serena Williams inserts herself between the bride and the groom.

Another fascinating aspect of this story is that Serena Williams starts to take photos and next, she sends these photos around the world. And number 9: There is huge international publicity on this story. In fact, it's even shown in Muslim countries and it's interesting because if you look at these pictures of the wedding and Serena Williams in her swimsuit, her swimsuit is censored so you know this story did go to Muslim countries.

But the most interesting, the most fascinating part of this story is number 10 and that is the names of the bride and groom. Now if you thought that this story did not have Biblical significance, that this was not a prophecy from Almighty God, let me tell you the names of the bride and groom because they are right out of Scripture: their names are Ruth and Samuel.

So now let me review these 10 very strange oddities which show that this is more than just a publicity stunt. This is a prophecy from Almighty God. Number 1: The wedding reception takes place on a beach. The United States in Bible Prophecy is considered an island nation almost surrounded by water. Also, there was a very famous movie and novel back in my time called 'On the Beach' which was about nuclear warfare. Could there be a connection to that story? Number 2: They were wearing white tuxedos, not swimsuits, at this wedding party. White is of course a symbol of purity in Scripture. Number 3: Serena Williams, a very famous person, is next door, so to speak, to your wedding party. This is very unusual even if you were planning a wedding reception on a beach. The purpose for this was to give publicity to this story. This prophecy was meant to go around the world. Number 4: This world-class athlete crashes your party. Every news story used that word 'crash.' That's a very violent term. Who does this wedding party represent? Who do the bride and groom represent, Ruth and Samuel.

Number 5: This world class athlete does not put on her dress. She continues wearing this very strange bathing suit which exposes her butt. Number 6: It is a leopard print swimsuit and we know that the Leopard in Bible Prophecy refers to Barack Obama. Is Serena Williams a stand in for our President in this prophecy? I am sure that she is and it's not the first time. Remember that event at the Olympics where that flag fell? It fell when Serena Williams was picking up her gold medal and she was standing on the podium wearing one black sneaker and one white sneaker. That's because she symbolized the President at that event also. She is a very well-known African-American. She is number one in her field just like President Obama, and that event prophesied also the fall of the United States.

Number 7: Serena's swimsuit exposes her butt but covers her arms. What is the significance? Well if Serena Williams represents the United States and Barack Obama, that means that we are very vulnerable. We are not covering our butts. In military terms, you never want to leave your rear flank exposed. Not only that, but her arms are covered. That means we are keeping our weapons, our 'arms' under wrap. We are very weak. But that's not the only significance to this wedding party prophecy. Number 8: The party crasher takes over. She inserts herself between the bride and the groom. Another very interesting aspect of this prophecy. Why would Serena do that? Why is this so important? Almighty God is telling us there is a relationship not only to what Serena is wearing, exposing her butt but covering her arms, but also that she is inserting herself between the bride and groom. And number 9: There was huge international publicity even in Muslim countries. This message is a warning, not just to the United States, not just to Israel, but to the entire world.

And lastly, let's talk about Ruth and Samuel, the names of this bride and groom. And according to my friend Mordecai, who is Jewish, let me read one of his emails which is very interesting. 'I searched everywhere for their names. Ruth of course was a convert and Samuel, Shemuel or Shmuel in Hebrew/Yiddish, means 'name of God'. I think it signifies more than his (this is Barack Obama Mordecai is talking about) breaking up of Israel,(that's what I suggested to Mordechai was the significance of this event) it refers to his banning of the only true religions: Judaism and Christianity.'

Mordecai, I think you are 100 percent correct. 'Samuel represents God, Ruth represents Christians and Jews.' Let's remember, that's because Ruth was a convert. She represents two religions. 'This is more prophetic than I first feared.' You are right, Mordecai. This is more prophetic than I first feared also. And I don't mean to just criticize Serena Williams. A week earlier, a photograph of Kate Middleton's bare butt was sent around the world and I think these two events are related. Kate Middleton symbolizes Britain, Serena Williams symbolizes the United States and Barack Obama and in Bible Prophecy, both Britain and America are considered island nations; they are also the 2 horns on the Ram in Daniel 8; they will both be destroyed by the single horn on the Goat.

And the other part of this prophecy is that Barack Obama is working to destroy the two major religions of the world: Judaism and Christianity. And that part of the prophecy is already coming true and I believe the destruction of the United States and the destruction of Britain will also come true. Serena Williams is telling us that the butt of America and Obama are also exposed and our arms are under wraps and we are vulnerable to attack and we will be attacked and we will be defeated.
