

Our Lady of La Salette Prophecy Decoded Pt 2

This will be part two in my series on the amazing prophecies which Mary gave to two Shepherd children, Melanie Calvat and Maximin Giraud, at La Salette, France, way back in 1846 and last night at this time I did my first program and I just want to do a very brief review of what we discovered. I think the most important thing was that Pope Francis could very well be the False Prophet. And the reason I say that is because Mary described four consecutive End Times Popes, Pope Paul VI, Pope John Paul I, Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict but no Pope Francis. And she followed Pope Benedict by talking about the reign of the Antichrist and she said that Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict, his successor in other words, would not see the triumph of the Church. Well, certainly, if the next pope, Pope Francis, would see the triumph of the Church, it seems logical that Mary would refer to him, that he would be extremely important. But there's no word about Pope Francis at all and I think that is the clue to understand who the False Prophet is.

Seven years ago those same clues were there but I didn't understand what was meant by them because Pope Francis had not been elected. And I'm beginning to realize that these clues are given, both in this prophecy of La Salette and in Bible prophecy, not to identify either the False Prophet or the Antichrist ahead of time, but rather to verify their identity after they take office. And the reason I wanted to mention that is because on this program I will be going over the second half of the La Salette prophecy and Mary talks about the Antichrist so I'm not going to give you any false hope that I will be able to identify the Antichrist from these clues, in other words, reveal his identity, because he has not been revealed yet. These clues will make sense only after he takes his office.

So now, I thought we could go back to where we were last night and we were looking at part four: 'France, Italy, Spain and England will be at war. Blood will flow in the streets. Frenchman will fight Frenchman, Italian will fight Italian.' The only war this can refer to after 1865 must be World War 2; that's the only war in which all those four nations were involved. Someone tried to tell me that there will be civil war in those countries in the near future but that phrase, 'Frenchman against Frenchman', refers to World War 2 where there was the Vichy government in France, which supported the Nazis on one side, and there was the Resistance on the other side. And now let's go back to this section four and we will see why it's important to understand that Mary was referring to World War 2: 'A general war (WW 3) will follow which will be appalling. For a time, God will cease to remember France and Italy because the Gospel of Jesus Christ has been forgotten (that's a very important phrase) the wicked will make use of all their evil ways. Men will kill each other, massacre each other, even in their homes.'

So why is that an important phrase? I think what we are talking about is where Mary said in the Third Secret of Fátima, she gave the example: 'In Portugal the dogma of the faith will always be preserved'. What Mary is saying here is that the dogma of the faith will not always be preserved in France and Italy.

God will not forget Portugal or any other country where the dogma of the faith is preserved, I think also in Poland, for example. But it's very possible that what Mary is saying here at La Salette is that France will be forgotten. France and Italy will be forgotten by God because they abandon the dogma of the faith, as Mary predicted in the Third Secret of Fátima.

Continuing now with section four: 'At the first blow of his thundering sword, the mountains and all nature will tremble in terror, for the disorders and crimes of men have pierced the vault of the heavens.' This is not a war; these are the Seal, Bowl and Trumpet judgments, as described in the book of Revelation. 'Paris will burn and Marseille will be engulfed (probably refers to a tsunami) several cities will be shaken down and swallowed up by earthquakes. People will believe that all is lost. Nothing will be seen but murder, nothing will be heard but the clash of arms and blasphemy.' Obviously these events have not yet occurred, these are in the future: the burning of Paris and the engulfing of Marseille. The first blow from God's thundering sword means that this precedes Armageddon which is the last blow from God. The clash of arms which Mary describes is part of Armageddon.

And now Mary describes the last blow from God: 'The righteous will suffer greatly. Their prayers, their penances and their tears will rise up to Heaven and all of God's people will beg for forgiveness and mercy and will plead for my help and intercession (this is Mary speaking, remember). And then Jesus Christ, in an act of His justice (justice means He destroys His enemies) and His great mercy (that means He will save the rest of us) will command His angels to have all His enemies put to death.' So clearly, this describes the tribulation for Christians followed by Armageddon and 'MY help and intercession' refers to Mary's help. Mary is announcing here in the La Salette prophecies that SHE is going to be the help of our Remnant Catholic Church. And what we see here is the 'secret of earth' followed by the 'secret of heaven'. Remember, Jacinta said 'there is a secret of heaven and a secret of earth and the latter is terrifying'. The 'latter which is terrifying' is World War 3. It will be followed by Armageddon and Jesus said: 'If I do not return there will be no flesh left on earth'. And the in very last words of the book of Revelation we pray; 'Jesus Lord come quickly, maranatha'.

Next, Mary describes the thousand years of peace, also known as the Millennium: 'Suddenly the persecutors of the Church of Jesus Christ and all those given over to sin will perish and the earth will become desert like.' So, this is the secret of heaven at Armageddon which will be to our advantage because the supporters of the Antichrist will be removed from earth. And I believe that the desert conditions caused in these End Times will be from the End Times comet. And I believe they will be preceded by the three days of darkness. So let's continue with this fourth section: 'And then peace will be made (now this is the thousand years of peace or, in other words, the Millennium) and man will be reconciled with God. Jesus Christ will be served, worshiped and glorified. Charity will flourish everywhere. The new Kings (not the ten Kings of the Antichrist) will be the right arm of the holy Church (there will be no more separation of church and state) which will be strong, humble and pious in its poor but fervent imitation of the virtues of Jesus Christ. The Gospel will be preached everywhere and mankind will make great progress in its faith, for there will be unity among the workers of Jesus Christ and man will live in fear of God.' I can't think of any other Marian apparition which describes the Millennium even though it's very important in Bible prophecy. For example, Jesus tells the parable of the talents which is a description of the Millennium.

Let's go through a chronological summary of section four and we'll review what Mary talked about. At the beginning, as is the case with all of these sections, a year was given and that was 1865.

Bella Dodd
(former Communist)

Then we saw Mary describe the infiltration of seminaries and convents and that was perpetrated in this country primarily by Bella Dodd the Communist; she was following the instructions of her Communist handlers. Then Mary described World War 2 between 1939 and 1945. Then she described war which has not yet happened, and she called it a 'general war'; that must be World War 3. And then she said that 'Paris will burn Marseille will be engulfed'; that's also in the future. She said there will be a clash of arms; that refers to Armageddon and then the Millennium.

And La Salette is, as I said, alone, as far as I know, among Marian apparitions where she describes the Millennium. And you have to be very careful: don't confuse the Millennium with Millenarianism. Millenarianism is a heresy; it is condemned by the Church; but that's not the Millennium. Millenarianism is the false heresy that mankind can be perfected without going through tribulation. The Millennium is what occurs after tribulation. That is a true prophecy and that is part of La Salette and, of course, many places in Scripture.

Next, Mary describes a forerunner of the Antichrist and we go to section five and a new date, 1870, and Mary prophesies: 'This peace among men will be short-lived.' This is a crucial first sentence. What peace is Mary talking about? Every other Bible interpreter and Marian apparition interpreter, in this case, has said that she's referring back to the Millennium, the thousand years of peace, but that's where all interpretations of La Salette have gone wrong because Mary is NOT referring back to the Millennium, she is starting a new section and therefore she goes back in time. The peace that Mary is talking about is the peace that was occurring at the time that Mary gave the prophecy to Melanie Calvat, in other words, in 1846; however, this new date of 1870 is a little confusing. Let's see what Mary says next: 'This peace among men will be short-lived (the peace that was occurring at Melanie Calvat's time, 1846). 'Twenty-five years of abundant harvests will make them forget that the sins of men are the cause of all the troubles which come upon the earth.' Notice in this new section, section number five, Mary does not give a date. That's because she expects us to figure it out from what she gave us. We know that the prophecy was given in 1846 and if you add 25 years to 1846 you come up with 1871. But there's one problem: in 1870 the Franco-Prussian war broke out. Thus, you would not have 25 years of peace and Mary would have given a false prophecy. But please notice that Mary did not say 25 years, she said 25 years of abundant harvests. In other words, you must start with the year 1846 and the abundant harvest of that year. So when you add 25 years of abundant harvests, yes indeed, you do come up with the year 1870 when the peace was broken. Therefore, this is really an amazing prophecy on Mary's part and thus the accurate starting date for this fifth section is 1870.

Let's continue looking at section number five: 'A forerunner of the Antichrist, with his troops gathered from several nations, will fight against the true Christ, the only savior of the world. He will shed much blood and will want to annihilate the worship of God to make himself be looked upon as God.' There are many possible candidates for this forerunner of the Antichrist after 1870. I think probably the most obvious would be Adolf Hitler although you could include Stalin or Mao. He was the first to practice the cult of personality. He posted huge images of himself. He wanted people to say 'Heil Hitler'. That certainly sounds like worship to me. So, Hitler could be the forerunner of the Antichrist that Mary is talking about here.

Continuing with the next part of section five: 'The earth will be struck by calamities of all kinds (in addition to plague and famine which will be widespread) (Melanie added those words later) there will be a series of wars until the last war, which will be then fought by the ten Kings of the Antichrist, all of whom will have one and the same plan and will be the only rulers of the world.' Once again this last war that Mary refers to must just precede Armageddon. The series of wars after Hitler or after World War II were the wars following 9/11. I don't believe it refers to the time of Korea or Vietnam etc because that time was relatively peaceful. The series of wars, I believe, occurred after 9/11. Let's look again at section 5: 'Before this comes to pass (that is, before the forerunner of the Antichrist) there will be a kind of false peace in the world.'

So what is this false peace? Is this false peace the time between World War 1 and World War 2, for example? And I really don't think so because what is the definition of a false peace? Evidently, it's not a real peace and I think after World War 1 there was real peace. In other words, I know the United States disarmed, much to our eventual dismay; we rued the day we did that. But I believe that the false peace refers to a time when nations are actually preparing for war and I believe the false peace comes before the series of wars which started with 9/11. In other words, when all the nations were preparing for war, including the United States. What this interpretation means is that the Korean War, the Vietnam War, the Gulf War, and so on, were merely skirmishes in preparation for the final war, World War 3, between the Scarlet Beast, which represents International Communism and the Whore of Babylon, which represents Britain and America.

Now, we do have a problem because that interpretation changes who the forerunner of the Antichrist must be since Hitler came before the false peace. So Mary is being very subtle here; You have to figure this out. The forerunner that Mary is talking about must be someone more contemporary and that would be someone like, I have suggested before, Vladimir Putin or maybe even Barack Obama.

Vladimir Putin

And I know Barack Obama may be considered a man of peace by the Nobel Peace Prize Committee but actually he was involved with many, many wars throughout the world, not just in Iraq and Afghanistan, which he did not do anything to stop, which he promised he would stop, but also in Libya and in Egypt in Syria and Iran, all over, including Ukraine. So it's very possible that Obama is the forerunner of the Antichrist whom Mary is talking about here.

Next, Mary says that she is going back in time: 'Before this comes to pass', in other words, she's going back in time but she is not starting a new section. This is kind of interesting. In order to go back in time without starting a new section, she has to announce that she's going back in time. And that verifies my contention that all of the other sections are in chronological order because it is the established pattern for the entire La Salette prophecy. Therefore, for Mary to break that pattern, she has to announce that she is going back in time. Next, I believe that Mary goes forward in time to the time of the forerunner of the Antichrist, the time we are in now.

Let's return to the La Salette prophecy, section number five: 'Before this comes to pass there will be a kind of false peace in the world.' Not a real peace because the nations will actually be preparing for war and I believe that is what we mean when we call that era the Cold War; that was a false peace. 'People will think of nothing but amusements. The wicked will give themselves over to all kinds of sin. But the children of the Holy Church, the children of my faith (remember, this is Mary speaking) my true followers (the Holy Church that she is talking about is the remnant Church. I don't believe it is the Roman Church because that is being trampled under by the Gentiles) they will grow in their love for God and in all the virtues most precious to me. Blessed are the souls humbly guided by the Holy Spirit! I (that is Mary) shall fight at their side until they reach a fullness of years.' This 'fullness of years' again refers to Armageddon and note that Mary says that she will fight at our side. It's interesting that once again, there's no mention of a Pope. Why doesn't she say the Pope will fight at our side? She says 'I will fight at your side'. And I've always said that the woman in Revelation 12 who flees into the desert symbolizes both Mary and the Remnant Catholic Church. At this time, Mary is in heaven, but here Mary says she will fight at our side; thus she will go with the Remnant Church into the desert.

Returning to section 5: 'Nature is asking for vengeance because of man, and she trembles with dread at what must happen to the earth stained with crime. Tremble, earth, and you who proclaim yourself as serving Jesus Christ and who on the inside, only adore yourselves, tremble for God will hand you over to his enemy, because the holy places are in a state of corruption. Many convents are no longer houses of God but the grazing grounds of Asmodeus and his like.'

This trembling certainly sounds like 'earthquakes in diverse places' which Jesus prophesied in the Olivet Discourse. And this reminds me of when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey and the people all shouted out 'Hosanna son of David' and the scribes and the Pharisees told Jesus: 'Don't let your disciples say that, tell them to be quiet.' And Jesus answered, He said: 'I tell you if they don't cry out, the rocks will cry out.'

So why will the rocks cry out at this time, in the End Times? Because earthquakes are very noisy. I don't know if you're aware of that or not. I only learned that myself, probably 25 years ago, when I went through one of the very few earthquakes we have in our area. I remember I was eating breakfast at the time and I just started to bless myself for grace you know, grace before meals, and just as I started blessing myself, the house started shaking. That made me very nervous. But I went to the door and I noticed there was a lot of noise. There's a lot of noise with an earthquake and I believe that is what Jesus means and what Mary is referring to here; that the earth will tremble and the rocks will cry out. And why should they cry out? Because the holy people of our time are not announcing the return of Jesus Christ. When was the last time you heard a priest or a bishop or a Cardinal tell people to get ready for the second coming of our Lord? They don't do it; therefore the rocks are going to cry out.

And Mary says here 'God will hand you over to his enemy'. What does that mean? Well, the enemy is the Antichrist and in Daniel, chapter 14, and in Esther, God Himself appoints the Antichrist. Remember, God appointed Haman and He gives Haman the right to kill the Jews. This is Almighty God who gives the Antichrist his power and in the End Times we Catholics are prefigured by the persecuted Jews in the book of Esther.

Now, let's review the chronological summary for this section we just went through, section 5, and it started, remember, in 1870 with the Franco-Prussian war and then there was a false peace. That came before the forerunner of the Antichrist following World War 2, the cold war, in other words. Then came the forerunner of the Antichrist; that would be maybe Putin, maybe Obama. We don't know yet. As I say, the clues are there, but until they take their office, we don't really know who they are. Then there was a series of wars and America has been at war continuously ever since 9/11. And the wars were in Iraq, Afghanistan, the Gulf Wars, Libya, Egypt, Ukraine, all over and America has been involved with all of those. And then came Armageddon which Mary described as the 'fullness of years', and that phrase lets you know you're at the end. And then she closes with a general admonition which I read.

We are ready for the sixth section of the La Salette prophecy and Mary does not give a date for this section either but rather she names an event that will have a definite date, in other words, the birth of the Antichrist, although we don't know at this time what that date was. So let's move on to this sixth section of La Salette which I call the birth of the Antichrist. Remember, these titles are not in the La Salette prophecy; I have added these titles to distinguish the seven different sections. The date I give here, 1954, is just a guess. I took that as Recep Erdogan's birth date but I am NOT saying he's the Antichrist because, as I say, we have clues but we won't know who the Antichrist is until he takes office.

Antichrist will be born of a Hebrew nun

'It will be during this time (that is during the false peace between 1945 and 2001 and, as I say, I am guessing about 1954) that the Antichrist will be born of a Hebrew nun (many people before have suggested that the Antichrist will be descended from the tribe of Dan; that is, he will be at least partly Jewish) a false virgin who will communicate with the old serpent, the master of impurity, his father will be Ev.' Now, this prophecy was, of course, originally published in French and that word may indicate a bishop but, as I say, we're not going to know what these clues mean until the Antichrist actually takes his office. 'At birth, he will spew out blasphemy; he will have teeth, in a word, he will be the devil incarnate (in other words, Satan is going to imitate God). He will scream horribly, he will perform wonders; he will feed on nothing but impurity. He will have brothers, who although not devils incarnate like himself, will be children of evil (I believe this refers to the ten Kings of the Antichrist). At the age of twelve, they will draw attention upon themselves by the gallant victories they will have won; soon they will lead armies aided by the legions of hell.'

Recently I received an interesting message from someone who says that these may not be military victories, they may be sports victories, for example. I thought that was good insight. For example, Putin was very athletic, very much involved in athletics. Was he a champion of some sport? Someone said he was a champion at judo. Did he have a lot of teammates on a team, for example. Remember, the symbolic interpretation takes precedence over the literal interpretation in Apocalyptic Literature. And that's what the La Salette prophecy is: Apocalyptic Literature. Mary says at the age of 12 he will achieve these victories; but age 12 could also be symbolic. Could this age not refer to the age of the Antichrist but to the age of our society? In other words, 12 is the midnight hour, and therefore, the End Times. Always look at the symbolic interpretation ahead of the literal.

Let's continue with this sixth section: 'The seasons will be altered, the earth will produce nothing but bad fruit, the stars will lose their regular motion, and the moon will only reflect a faint reddish glow. Water and fire will give the Earth's globe convulsions and

"Rome will lose the Faith, and become the seat of the antichrist."

Our Lady of La Salette

terrible earthquakes which will swallow up mountains, cities etc.' That word 'etc' was added by Melanie later and it simply means that Mary showed her more catastrophes than what she describes here. Next comes the most famous prophecy in all of the La Salette prophecies: 'Rome will lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist.' And this is verified in the book of Revelation where John says the 'holy city will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles'. In the End Times, the roles of the holy city and the great city are reversed. In John's time, the 'great city' was Rome and the 'holy city' was Jerusalem, but in the book of Revelation, those roles are reversed, because John is describing the End Times. In the End Times, the holy city is Rome because it is the home of the Roman Catholic Church and the great city is Jerusalem, I think, because Israel has so much to do with the world's wealth. I suspect that's why John calls it the great city and we know it's the great city, according to John, because he says that's where our Lord was crucified. He also calls Jerusalem 'a Sodom and an Egypt'.

And God Destroyed Sodom

Let's return now to section six: 'The demons of the air together with the Antichrist will perform great wonders on earth and in the atmosphere, and men will become more and more perverted. (And we see that perversion even in the Church.) God will take care of his faithful servants (now 'servants' is a code word in End Times prophecy for the remnant Jews) and men of good will (this is a code word for the remnant Catholics). The Gospel will be preached everywhere, and all peoples of all nations will get to know the truth.' Now Mary switches back to the present tense because she is going to give a heartfelt appeal for people to join her army in these End Times.

Listen to this and see if it doesn't sound like a recruiting sergeant giving a spiel to the soldiers waiting to join Mary's End Times army: 'I make an urgent appeal to the earth. I call on the true disciples of the living God who reigns in heaven; I call on the true followers of Christ made man, the only Savior of men; I call on my children the truth faithful, those who have given themselves to me so that I may lead them to my divine Son (how many times have I told you that Mary is the leader in these End Times? She is our five star general!), those whom I carry in my arms, so to speak, those who have lived in my spirit.' Clearly Mary is gathering her remnant army; we are the seed of this woman. 'Finally, I call on the Apostles of the last days the faithful disciples of Jesus Christ who have lived in scorn for the world and for themselves, in poverty and in humility, in scorn and in silence, in prayer and in mortification, in chastity and in union with God, in suffering and unknown to the world. It is time they came out and filled the world with light. Go and reveal yourselves to be my cherished children. I am at your side and within you, provided that your faith is the light which shines upon you in these unhappy days. May your zeal make you famished for the glory and the honor of Jesus Christ. Fight, children of the light, you the few who can see, for now is the time of all times, now is the end of all ends.'

When I first read that exhortation quite a few years ago it had a tremendous impact on me. It's beautiful writing and it's a powerful recruitment of soldiers, and that's when I decided to start my ministry. I had no experience in this vocation. I was a furniture engineer but when I first read that I said, 'that's me she's talking about'. I really felt that. And again, she ends this section with the phrase 'the end of all ends'. Thus we see that section six, just like all of the others, goes chronologically from an earlier date, this time later than the 19th century, and it ends with an End Times date. It began with the birth of the Antichrist, and we don't know that day but it is nonetheless a specific date. Some day we will be able to fill in that blank. She moved on to the reign of the Antichrist. Then Mary said that 'Rome will lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist'. And she concluded with Armageddon. Then she gave her impassioned exhortation to all the rest of us to join her army against the Antichrist, which was in the present tense. And you could insert that exhortation anywhere in the La Salette prophecy but it's significant that she put it here during the reign of the Antichrist. And that phrase which ends this sixth section, is the 'end of all ends'. Therefore, we see that all of the events in this section, just like all of the other sections, are in chronological sequence; they are in their correct order.

Moving on to the seventh and last section of the La Salette prophecy, I call this section, 'Enoch and Elijah Come to Earth', and I am putting down here as the date, I'm guessing, 2011, and I will show in a minute why that's an educated guess: 'The Church will be in eclipse, the world will be in dismay. But now, Enoch and Elijah will come, filled with the Spirit of God.' So again, in this section, Mary does not give a specific date but she refers to a date which we will eventually know. Just like the birth date of the Antichrist, we will be able to fill in the blanks, so to speak, because it will be the day when Enoch and Elijah come filled with the Holy Spirit. And I'm not sure if you remember this, but the voice of Elijah was heard, in that fire tornado in Australia which occurred on the 11th anniversary of 9/11; in other words, on 9/11, 2012. That itself is significant and the voice in the tornado, fire tornado, said 'I am here'; a very thrilling sound. Once you hear that you can never forget it. It's not loud, it's faint, but it is very clear and that can only refer to Elijah because he left in the fiery chariot; and so it's appropriate for him to return in a fire tornado.

Elijah says "I am here"
<https://www.thirdeaglemedia.com/2012>

What's interesting is that he spoke English; and he appeared on the anniversary of 9/11. Therefore, I think his message was for those of us here in the United States.

Continuing with section number seven: 'They will preach with the might of God (this is Enoch and Elijah) and men of goodwill will believe in God, and many souls will be comforted. They will make great steps forward through the virtue of the Holy Spirit and will condemn the devilish lapses of the Antichrist. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth!' And again, I think that 'woe to the inhabitants of the earth' is a direct reference to my mission because that's exactly what the Eagle says in Revelation 8, verse 13. Section seven continues: 'There will be bloody wars and famines, plagues and infectious diseases.' I believe these are the Trumpet, Seal and Bowl judgments. 'It will rain with a fearful hail of animals.'

And we've already seen that. 'There will be thunderstorms which will shake cities, earthquakes which will swallow up countries. Voices will be heard in the air. Men will beat their heads against walls, call for their death, and on another side death will be their torment. Blood will flow on all sides. Who will be the victor if God does not shorten the length of the test? All the blood, the tears and prayers of the righteous, God will relent.' In fact, if you remember in the Bible, Jesus said 'If I do not return there would be no flesh left on earth'. 'Enoch and Elijah will be put to death. Pagan Rome will disappear. The fire of heaven will fall and consume three cities.' Do three cities symbolize three countries, by the way? 'All the universe will be struck with terror and many will let themselves be led astray because they have not worshipped the true Christ who lives among them. It is time; the sun is darkening; only faith will survive.' That is an extremely important warning, 'only faith will survive'. If you remember nothing else from the La Salette prophecy, remember that phrase, 'only faith will survive'. That is how we will get through the Great Tribulation.

Let's continue with section seven: 'Now is the time; the abyss is opening. Here is the king of kings of darkness (that would be Satan) here is the beast with his subjects calling himself the savior of the world (that would be the Antichrist). He will rise proudly into the air to go to Heaven. He will be smothered by the breath of the Archangel Saint Michael. He will fall, and the earth, which will have been in a continuous series of evolutions for three days(could that be the three days of darkness?) will open up its fiery bowels: and he will have plunged for all eternity with all his followers into the everlasting chasms of hell.'

So, as I say, do you suppose that refers to the three days of darkness? And this casting of the Antichrist into hell is found almost with the exact same description in the book of Revelation, chapters 19 and 20. Let's return to section number seven: 'And then water and fire will purge the earth and consume all the works of men's pride and all will be renewed. God will be served and glorified.' And that is the end of the La Salette prophecy.

And once again in this section seven, Mary began with a specific date and ended with, in this case, the Millennium where 'God will be served and glorified'. So we started with the arrival of Enoch and Elijah, then Mary described their ministry, she described their martyrdom, then she gave us the warning that 'only faith will survive' and once again, this section ended with End Times events, Armageddon, and finally the Millennium. And I believe this description of the desert-like condition on earth following the End Times comet is consistent with Bible prophecy and that phrase 'God will be served and glorified' once again, is a description of the Millennium. And as I said before, I don't know any other Marian apparition that describes the Millennium; and that is very interesting. Let me reiterate, the Church condemns Millenarianism, not the Millennium. And that is the conclusion of my two-part series on the amazing prophecy that Mary gave at La Salette back in 1846 and I have shown, I think quite concisely, that this is Apocalyptic Literature and all Apocalyptic Literature becomes more pertinent as we continue through the End Times; and Apocalyptic Literature must be interpreted by a Co-Prophet, and that is my mission.
