

Sexuality of the Antichrist in Gangnam Style

This is the third in my series on that amazing viral video called "Gangnam Style". I believe this video is a lot more than what it appears on the surface and that's why I believe it is very popular around the world. People are beginning to see that it is a very significant video beyond just a popular song: in fact, I believe this is a message from God Himself.

Now in my last video, I suggested this was giving the Antichrist's viewpoint, and it's true, it does. But at the same time, it reveals more about the Antichrist than he would care to have you know. Therefore I am beginning to believe this video comes from the hand of Almighty God Himself, through His prophet Enoch. As you know, several years ago, I said that the prophet Enoch had returned to South Korea on November 23rd, 2010. I believe his hand was behind the making of this video, Gangnam Style. This video reveals more about the Antichrist than we even find in the Bible and today, I want to look at the sexuality of the Antichrist. This video not only tells us that the Antichrist will arrive very soon, but it reveals the type of person he will be.

First, let's take a look at the very opening scene of the video, which indicates it is a message from God Himself. In the very beginning, we see an airplane flying through the heavens pulling a banner which says "Gangnam Style" on it. And it's very clever because this whole scene is reflected in Psy's sunglasses: that's why the wording is backwards.

There are several very important facets of this opening scene we need to understand. First of all, the plane flying overhead, I believe, is a sign from God that He is determining the contents of this video: He is going to reveal the Antichrist and that is why Psy is struggling to wake up: this is his first public appearance. And we should note that he is wearing sunglasses. In fact Psy wears sunglasses throughout this video. That's because this video is not about Psy, but rather he is impersonating someone else. He is in fact, impersonating the Antichrist.

In this opening scene, Psy appears to be relaxing in a lounge chair and in the background we see what looks like a beach. And I think the reason is, because the Antichrist is prophesied to come up out of the sea. Here on Psy's beach blanket we see, some very interesting patterns. Certainly this looks like a backwards 6, probably the same design here, very similar to what we see in satanic crop circles. Over here, we see the form of another 6, and another 6, and another 6, and of course, we know, the number of the Antichrist is 666. As I said, this opening scene is critical for our understanding of this video Gangnam Style.

First we see Psy lounging on the chair, asleep, but then he wakes up. That means this is the revealing of the Antichrist. He is shown, in this video, with one other major person, and that is, the dancing boy. There are three similar scenes in Gingham Style, in which he is shown with one other person, and in which he is being revealed. I believe this one other person, symbolizes the False Prophet, because he is the one who precedes the Antichrist. Therefore in this first scene, the dancing boy actually is personifying the False Prophet.

Now as this opening scene continues, we see Psy, darting back and forth, behind the dancing boy, as if he is about to reveal himself. And the dancing boy, I believe, signifies the False Prophet, who comes before the Antichrist. And please notice that the scene has now changed into a playground scene, instead of a beach. And I believe these children playing in the background, symbolize carefree humanity which is about to be taken over by the Antichrist.

There are a total of 22 scenes in Gangnam Style: let's jump ahead to the 19th scene, which shows Psy in an indoor pool. Remember that the Antichrist comes from the sea, and in this particular scene, Psy pops up through the surface of the water, and says, of course, 'Oppan Gangnam Style'. As you know, from my previous videos, 'Oppan Gangnam Style' is actually 'Open Gangland Style', or actually better, 'Open Gang Man Style', and of course, the 'Gang Man' is the Antichrist.

This is another of the three revelatory scenes in Gangnam Style. And here Psy, reveals himself by popping up out of the water. Notice Psy is still wearing colored goggles, but this scene also has homosexual overtones, because there is another figure in the pool with Psy.

Notice how this man in the pool with Psy is not out in the center of the water, but rather he is firmly situated on the ledge that surrounds the pool. I believe this is because the False Prophet does not come up out of the water, but rather comes up out of the land in Bible prophecy. Thus, we have seen Psy, as the Antichrist, revealing himself behind the dancing boy, and we have seen him coming up out of the sea, in the swimming pool.

In this next scene, we see him behind an elevator door, and the elevator door opens up, to once again, reveal the Antichrist, and the other figure in this scene again represents the False Prophet. Let's take a look at this weird scene: the opening of these elevator doors announce the arrival of the Antichrist and this weird figure above, would be the False Prophet.

And I can't tell, maybe he is giving birth to the Antichrist, or is this suggesting something more like what we saw in the pool, with the False Prophet and the Antichrist?

I think the homosexual overtones in this particular scene are quite obvious, but what can they possibly mean? I think this video, Gangnam Style, is telling us something new about the Antichrist: that he and the False Prophet have a sexual relationship. What's amazing is that such a possibility is not found in scripture; at least, I have not been able to find any such information. Could this possibly be true? If this video has been directed by the hand of God, then we are learning something new about the Antichrist and the False Prophet. That is an amazing revelation in itself.

In addition to the three scenes where the Antichrist appears with one other person, who symbolizes the False Prophet, Psy also appears in quite a few critical scenes where he appears with two other individuals. In this next particular scene, we see Psy in a sauna with two other males. It's interesting that Psy is continuing to wear his sunglasses, even though in is a very dark interior. What that means is that Psy is not going out of character: he is impersonating someone else and he is, in fact, impersonating the Antichrist.

However in this scene, he is dressed up as a woman. Some people say this is a homosexual scene, but I think that something more is going on here. In this strange sauna scene, we see each of the men wearing white towels around their waist. This contrasts with Psy who is wearing a blue towel, which he wears around his chest, the way a woman would wear it, and he is crossing his legs in a feminine manner. Of course, this suggests homosexuality, but it could also be a depiction of the End Times unholy Trinity, which is a perversion of the Divine Trinity.

In a theological understanding of the Divine Trinity, there are two males, that is, the Father and the Son, but there is also the Holy Spirit. Now don't get me wrong, I am not saying the Holy Spirit is female, because that is not correct, as I have explained on other videos. However, this scene in the sauna, is very interesting because Psy is depicted as much different than the other two. I believe this scene in the sauna is a perversion of the Divine Trinity. It shows the Antichrist, the False Prophet and Satan. Thus, we have already seen that the Antichrist very likely has a homosexual relationship with the False Prophet, but here we see he is also a transvestite.

But there is even something more important in this particular scene. Let's take a look at the lower right hand corner.

In the lower right of this sauna scene, we see an hourglass. Is this hourglass one more indication in this video that the time for the arrival of the Antichrist has come? Does this hourglass symbolize that our time is up? This hourglass is very important for our understanding of this video. Why did the producers include that in this sauna scene? Now, I don't know but maybe hour glasses are regular features of Korean saunas but I have a feeling something else is at play here. I don't think the producers really knew why they put it in there. They probably just thought it would be an interesting addition.

I believe the Lord wanted the hourglass in this scene for a very important revelation, that the information in this video about the Antichrist comes from the Prophet Enoch. If you have seen my previous videos, you know that one of Enoch's most important missions in these End Times is to give the timing of events, and that's one of the things he is doing in this video. He is telling us that the Antichrist's arrival on our world planet is imminent. We must prepare now.

In part 4 of this series, I am going to show how God is revealing many more things about the Antichrist in this Gangnam Style video. He is not only, very likely, a homosexual, possibly a paedophile, possibly a transvestite, but we will see that he is also bisexual and his public policy will be to promote the homosexual agenda.
