

Q Anon Can't Explain Trump's Strange Blackout

Yesterday, Q Anon started posting after he took his summer vacation of almost three weeks and I felt very vindicated by his posts because never once did he mention that blackout at President Trump's news conference last Tuesday when he said he had 'full faith in the Intelligence services' and when he said that, the lights went out. And I claim that was a message from Almighty God. I don't think Trump planned it; I don't think the Deep State planned it. I am sure it was some kind of human error; somebody dimmed the lights and they weren't supposed to, and they put them right back on again. That tells me that God was sending Donald Trump a message.

And here's the first post that Q posted yesterday and it's kind of interesting because I don't think anybody else has noticed this: there were 17 lines in the post and I guess he called this post, 'From sea to shining sea', and of course, 17 is Q's favorite number because Q is the 17th letter of the alphabet. And did you notice the number of the post? The number is 1682 and when you add those integers you get the number 17. So, Q Anon is very much into hidden messages and secrets and so on and he always has been and this is why he is so fascinating. But he did not mention the hidden message and the 'strange' occurrence (that was Donald Trump's word) the strange occurrence of lights going out during that press conference and I know some of you my subscribers said, 'Oh Q Anon will mention that'; but he didn't, at least, so far, and I hope he does mention it.

Now, I have been studying that clip because I knew there was more to it than I was getting, than I was understanding, and it dawned on me; President Trump is praying when he says 'I have full faith in the Intelligence agencies'! And why do I know that? Because he clasped his hands and I hadn't noticed that before. He never clasps his hands at a press conference. I've never seen it; or at a rally or anywhere else. The only time I have seen him clasp his hands, and here's a picture of him clasping his hands, and this was when the Evangelical pastors visited him in the White House and they prayed over him. They put their hands on his shoulders and he clasped his hands together.

That's a typical attitude of prayer. And Donald Trump was praying when he said 'I have full faith in the Intelligence agencies' and Almighty God caught him up on that. He says you need to have full faith in Me. So, let me play that clip and I want you to concentrate on his hands because before he says 'I have full faith' he has his hands, oh, separated something like that. When he says 'I have full faith', that's when he clasped his hands. Now I know some of you are going to say that was a signal; take a look and see what you think.

President Trump speaking: 'Let me begin by saying that once again the full faith and support for America's intelligence agencies. I have a full faith in our intelligence agencies. Whoops, they just turned off the lights. That must be the Intelligence agencies. There it goes, okay. You guys okay? Good. That was strange.'

Okay, so I think that's pretty obvious and it took me a while to see it but that's the only time I've ever seen him clasp his hands like that except when he was praying with those Evangelical pastors. But, Almighty God was telling him at that press conference; you do not have full faith in Me. But in Isaiah 45, where he says Donald Trump does not have faith in God, there is a solution, because in chapter 45, verse number 3, of Isaiah, God says to Donald Trump: 'I will give you the hidden treasures and the concealed riches of secret places: that you may know I am the Lord who call you by your name, the God of Israel'. Not the 'God of Jacob', by the way, the 'God of Israel'. There are two Gods expressed in Isaiah 45: the God of Jacob and the God of Israel. Donald Trump will not be shown the God of Jacob, he will be shown the God of Israel who is the God of the remnant Catholic Church; that is Who Donald Trump must convert to and that is the hidden 'strange' message that the Lord told Donald Trump at that press conference. Donald Trump was very shocked at that, and if you remember that body language, remember that clip, he folded his arms like that. That is a sure sign of a defensive posture. If that was a signal for his people to turn the lights out, he would not have gone back in that posture of crossing his arms, he would have looked around to see how everybody was responding to his little ploy, and he did not do that. He was shocked and it was a supernatural message. That's why he said, it's 'strange', it's mysterious.

And so, what I would like to have you do is join me this afternoon, and every afternoon at 5:00 pm and pray Mary's Rosary that he is given a sign; that God shows him the 'hidden treasures and concealed riches of secret places' which refers to the Eucharist of the Catholic Church. Even Kim Clement says that the Protestants in this country are going to be converted by a 'beautiful woman with large eyes'. That beautiful woman is the Blessed Virgin Mary, the same 'beautiful woman', by the way, who appeared to George Washington at Valley Forge. Google: 'vision of George Washington' and you'll see what I mean.

Maybe Mary will also appear to Donald Trump, so that we won't get any more of these lights out at his press conferences.
