

Catholic 'Mystery Priest' Identified

This is a follow-up to my last program about that mystery priest who showed up at a terrible car accident out in Missouri a little over a week ago and he seemed to have disappeared after the accident. He did not show up in any of the photographs and the first responders speculated that he may have been a guardian angel. Well, it turns out that he wasn't. He was a real priest travelling from one Mass to another that Sunday morning and he has now identified himself as Father Patrick Dowling, a native of Kilkenny, Ireland.

So let me read a small portion of the statement which Father Dowling made and you can find the complete article on the Blaze, also with a picture of Father Dowling, and this is what he said: 'I parked behind a large vehicle about 150 yards from the scene. I asked the sheriff's permission and approached the scene of the accident' Dowling said. 'I absolved and anointed Katie at her request, prayed that her leg would not hurt, then I stepped aside to where some rescue personnel and the pilot were waiting and prayed the rosary silently.'

Well, this is interesting! Even though Father Dowling was not a guardian angel, I do believe the second part of what I said on that program holds true: that he was verifying Bible Prophecy and also the prophecies of Saint Malachy about the final Pope, Petrus Romanus. On my last program about this car accident I speculated that Katie Lentz, the victim, symbolizes End Times Catholics. The name is somewhat close, and the man who ploughed into her head-on totally destroyed her automobile and very seriously injured her. By the way. His name was Aaron Smith and he symbolized the Antichrist, and the destruction of the vehicle symbolized the Antichrist's destruction or near destruction of the Catholic Church.

Now, Jesus promised that his Church would not be overcome by the gates of hell; however, it will be trodden under by the Gentiles according to John in the book of Revelation, chapter 11, verse 2. But who does Father Dowling represent? Now this is where I believe the prophecies of Saint Malachy about the last Pope, Petrus Romanus, are verified. I said at the time in that program that this priest, who was a guardian angel for Katie Lentz, represented the last Pope, Petrus Romanus. And it turns out that the mysterious Father Dowling represents the 'Father Dowling Mysteries' which were a series of novels and a television program authored by Ralph McInerny. In other words, Father Dowling is a fictional character who solved murder mysteries.

So how does that tie in? Well, what is Father Dowling's first name? In these murder mysteries, Father Dowling's real first name is Francis. What an amazing connection! In other words, even though Father Dowling is not a guardian angel, he was sent by God to verify the prophecies of Saint Malachy, that our current Pope, Pope Francis, is a true Pope and that he will feed his flock during the Great Tribulation (1).

And did you notice, according to Father Dowling's press release, the real Father Dowling said that he prayed the Rosary. As I have said all along, the weapon which Jesus will use to crush the Antichrist is Mary's Rosary.

1) Since this program I've come to realize my interpretation was more like wishful thinking.
