

Holy Spirit Prophecy! White Flags Over Brooklyn!

I'm sure by now you have seen many of those images of the white flags that were hoisted over the Brooklyn Bridge and which happened a couple of nights ago. The two huge American flags that normally fly over the bridge were replaced by two white flags and nobody knows who did this particular escapade but, I want to congratulate you whoever you are. I believe what you did will prove to be very patriotic. You were very daring! You were very courageous! You were very resourceful, and you were very patriotic, and that's because you were trying to warn America and I commend you!

I think your message was very clear. First of all, America's security is practically non-existent. I mean the Brooklyn Bridge is supposed to be one of the most secure locations in America. It's an obvious target for terrorists. I believe your second purpose was to show that America has basically surrendered; that was the purpose of the white flags. We can't even secure our southern border. Can you think of any other country that feeds, clothes and houses illegal aliens?! And I think your third purpose was to show the decadence of America. That's why you chose a bleached American flag. It wasn't exactly a white flag because it had been faded with Clorox or some other kind of bleach.

But now, I would like to add an even deeper significance to your sneak attack on the Brooklyn Bridge, which I don't believe even you understand, and that is the prophetic message. I believe you were inspired by the Holy Spirit. There are some cases where the Holy Spirit works through people when they do know what they're doing, for example, Dianne Reidy, when she addressed Congress and she told them that God was not at all pleased with Obamacare. That message came from the Holy Spirit.

In your case, however, I suspect you do not realize that the Holy Spirit was inspiring your activities. Your message was also prophetic. That's why you took down both flags. Those two white flags symbolize the surrender of both Britain and America. In other words, you were prophesying the downfall of Babylon, and there's three reasons I believe this to be true. First of all, the name Brooklyn is very close to Babylon, much more so than any other American city, for example. I suppose Baltimore or Boston come close but not as close as Brooklyn. This Brooklyn Bridge caper symbolized the downfall of Babylon and it was over water. You could have chosen many other locations to prove that America's security is abysmal but in the book of Revelation, Babylon's geographical location is 'over many waters'.

But the third and most important significance is the duality of your prophecy. Let's look at Revelation, chapter 14, verse 8: 'And another angel followed, saying: that great Babylon is fallen, is fallen'. Those two 'is fallens' refer to two different countries, Britain and America. Chapter 18, verse 2: 'And he cried out with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen'. Again, two 'is fallens'. Verse number 6: 'Render to her even as she rendered to you, and double (notice this duality) unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she has filled, fill to her double.' And in verse number 10: 'Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, woe, woe,' notice two 'woes'. Elsewhere in Revelation, John talks about 3 woes but here he specifies two 'woes'. Some Bibles say 'alas, alas,' but the point is there is a duality. '...The great city, Babylon, the strong for in one hour is your judgement come.' 'In one hour' sounds very much like a nuclear attack. Verse number 16: 'Saying, woe, woe, the great city, she that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet.'

Now the false prophets try to tell you that this 'great city' is Rome, referring to the Catholic Church, because Bishops and Cardinals wear purple and scarlet. That is nonsense. First of all, John would never use clothing to symbolize clothing. Clothing must symbolize something else. In this case, the purple signifies the royalty of Britain and the scarlet symbolizes how America came into being: through a bloody Revolution.

Verse number 19: '...And they cast dust on their heads (John is talking about the merchants of the world) and cried weeping and mourning, saying woe, woe the great city wherein all that had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her prices for in one hour is she made desolate.' There's no way this passage can refer to Rome or the Vatican. Do you honestly believe that if the Catholic Church were burned with fire in one hour, all the merchants of the world would weep and mourn? That is utter nonsense.

Now, the news media will try to portray those who hoisted these white flags over the Brooklyn Bridge as 'crackpots' in very much the same way as they tried to defame Dianne Reidy. The Holy Spirit is not popular in the halls of Congress or in Government or in the news media because the Holy Spirit is warning America. The Holy Spirit is telling us that we do not have any security, that we will lose, that we will surrender and that we are decadent. The Holy Spirit is telling us that the two flags over the Brooklyn Bridge are prophesying the downfall of the Whore of Babylon, that is, Britain and America.
