

Did Pope Francis Okay Bombing of ISIS?

One of my subscribers sent me a very interesting article claiming that Pope Francis will okay the bombing of the ISIS militants in Iraq. Now, I want to read this for you, it appeared in the Washington Times and the dateline is August the 13th, that would be this past Wednesday, and the headline is 'Vatican Approves of US Air Strikes in Iraq' and this also appeared on the Breitbart Internet site and I'll put the link to that article below.

'The Vatican has given a rare exception granting approval to US Military Air Strikes against Islamic State Fighters in Iraq,' I believe that is ISIS, and now this says the Vatican approved it, that doesn't necessarily mean Pope Francis, although I doubt if they would make this statement without his approval. 'Military action might be necessary,' said Silvano Tomasi, the Holy See's Ambassador to the United Nations, Agence France- Presse reported, 'Intervention now before it is too late.' Fearing a genocide of Christians, the Vatican is making an exception to its Peace Policy in condoning military intervention in Iraq despite vocally disapproving the US intervention in 2003'.

And I remember that very well. Pope John Paul II sent an ambassador to President George W. Bush urging him not to intervene in Iraq, but of course, President Bush did not listen to the Pope's ambassador and the whole mess in the Middle East can actually be traced back to George Bush wanting to remove Saddam Hussein. That was a disaster for Christians throughout the Middle East and President Obama has continued that policy extending it to Libya and Egypt and Lebanon and Syria and throughout the Middle East and American Policy has resulted in the deaths of many Christians in that area.

And this article continues: 'Those supplying arms and funds to the fundamentalists and the countries tacitly supporting them must be revealed, Mr. Tomasi added. Rabban al-Qas, the Chaldean Bishop of Amadiyah, agreed, arguing that intervention is needed to stop the wolf getting to the flock to kill, eat and destroy, AFP reported.'

Well, I disagree. This is not how Islam is to be defeated. I admit, back in 1571, at the Battle of Lepanto, military action did defeat the great Turkish fleet. In fact, that was approved and organized at that time by Pope Pius V, however, the situation now is completely different. The Pope gave credit to Mary and the Rosary for that victory and that day, October the 7th, the date of the victory, is now the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary in the Catholic Church.

However, at Fatima, Mary said that our victory will be completely different. It will not be military. It must be spiritual. She told Lucy, the seer at Fatima, that the Pope must consecrate Russia to her Immaculate Heart and that is how world peace will be achieved at this time. None of the recent popes have done this consecration nor has Pope Francis and if Pope Francis is the False Prophet, I doubt very much if he will achieve this victory over Communism, over the One World Communist Tyranny. Pope Benedict may do it but I believe the answer lies elsewhere.

At Fatima, Mary also gave us laypeople a duty to fulfill and that is the praying of the Rosary and this is consistent with Bible Prophecy. Ezekiel, Zachariah, all the last six chapters of Daniel, even our Lord's message in the Olivet Discourse, tells us that 666, the forces of the Antichrist, will be defeated by 555, the tremendous force of Mary's Rosary.

And so, in conclusion, as I have said all along on this program, the weapon Jesus will use to defeat the Antichrist is Mary's Rosary as prefigured by the five smooth pebbles which David used against Goliath; and as prophesied way back in Genesis 3:15 where the Woman crushes the head of the serpent, that is Satan, and her seed, and that includes us, will crush the seed of the serpent, who is the Antichrist.
