

Did Donald Trump Just Appoint the Antichrist?

This past week a very significant development occurred in the Middle East and that is when President Donald Trump began to withdraw American troops. And in my last video (https://docs.wixstatic.com/ugd/f9795d\_6ae81fbb7078430da61b382ede38fbdf.pdf) I said that indicated he is making way for the Antichrist; he is removing the restraint. In other words, Donald Trump was inspired by the Holy Spirit. And I thought I would expand on that by saying that he may also be 'appointing' the Antichrist. And I know that's rather unusual to think about here on YouTube. I don't think anyone has suggested that is what Donald Trump is actually doing. And I thought I could read some of the press releases which explain what he did.

First of all, I want to refer to the Times of Israel to get the Israeli perspective on what is going on. And this is dateline, December 23rd, I think he did it about a week ago, a little less than a week ago: 'Turkish President Recep Erdogan and US

counterpart, Donald Trump, agreed in a phone conversation

Sunday (I would like to know who initiated this phone connection, was it Recep Erdogan, or, I think, very much more likely, Donald Trump? Is Recep Erdogan the Antichrist? I have suggested that before but I'm not saying that definitely. If I knew for sure, I would tell you; I don't know for sure) to prevent a power vacuum in Syria after American ground forces withdraw, the Turkish presidency said Sunday. The two leaders agreed to ensure coordination between their country's military, diplomatic and other officials to avoid a power vacuum which could result (you bet) following any abuse of the withdrawal and transition phase in Syria, the Turkish presidency said in a statement. Earlier, the US president tweeted that he had a long and productive call with Erdogan (very interesting, a long and productive call with Erdogan) and also discussed the Islamic state group, Isis, and heavily expanded trade. Trump shocked US allies last week when he announced plans to pull 2,000 troops out of Syria where they had been helping coordinate a multinational fight against Isis. But the move was lauded by Turkey. The decision followed an earlier Trump phone call with Erdogan who has been pressing for a US withdrawal.' So, was that 'earlier' phone call, was that initiated by Erdogan?

Here are the tweets that the president gave; I'm sure all of you are familiar with what he said; this was on the 23rd: 'I just had a long and productive call with President Erdogan of Turkey. We discussed Isis, our mutual involvement in Syria, and the slow and highly coordinated pullout of US troops from the area. After many years they are coming home. We also discussed heavily expanded Trade.' That pretty much goes along with what the Israeli news source said and later, a few minutes later, he tweeted: 'President Erdogan of Turkey has very strongly informed me that he will eradicate what is left of Isis in Syria and he is a man who can do it plus, Turkey is right next door. Our troops are coming home.' And I think Donald Trump did the right thing but he really had no choice; a lot of people are speculating that we need those troops on our southern border; that's why he's bringing them home. A lot of people speculate that he may need troops at Guantanamo Bay, Gitmo, if there are going to be military trials in the coming year. And a lot of people think he may need increased military presence here in the United States if a lot of famous people are indicted and he needs to institute martial law.

Next, I thought I would read what the Turkish news agency has said and that is just this morning, and the dateline is Ankara, December the 25th. By the way, I should wish everyone a Merry Christmas. I don't have merry news but today is the 2,000 year birthday of our Lord. 2,000 years ago Jesus came on earth to save mankind from sin. We're going to discuss on our program how God plans to save us from Satan and the Antichrist. 'The US has done its part by deciding to withdraw its troops from Syria, Turkey's president said on Tuesday (today). Speaking to reporters, Recep Erdogan said they are focusing more on the announced US troop withdrawal than the French president's statement that French soldiers will stay. (The Deep State does not want Donald Trump removing troops from the Middle East; very interesting) We are continuing our cooperation with US President Donald Trump on Syria Erdogan said. He added: America has done its part. (Now, listen to this next part of this Turkey press release) He also said arrangements are being made for a possible meeting between him and Russian President Vladimir Putin. Trump next week made the surprise announcement that the US would withdraw its troops from Syria.

His decision followed a phone call with Erdogan in which the two leaders agreed on the need for more effective coordination over the civil war torn country.'

I also want to bring your attention to this very interesting murmuration of birds which I interpreted several years ago. I believe if you want to find this murmuration video you have to type in: 'Putin's face appears in murmuration of birds.' I no longer believe that that person on the left is Vladimir Putin; I believe it is Pope Francis. The one in the middle certainly looks like Erdogan. He's got all the characteristics of Recep Erdogan. He's got the cleft chin, he's got the pronounced philtrum, he's got a small moustache, and he doesn't have an Arabic nose. He's got swept back hair. He's got wrinkles in his forehead, he's got baggy eyes. That's why I say that this person is Erdogan, the clown face. And on the right, I believe, there is an image of Satan. In other words, God is telling us through this murmuration of birds, this amazing video, He's telling us the false prophet on the left, who I still believe is Pope Francis, the Antichrist in the middle, who it looks to me is Erdogan, and Satan on the right: the unholy trinity of these End Times.

So, why do I say that Donald Trump appointed the Antichrist? Does the Bible back up that statement at all? Well first of all, who DOES appoint the Antichrist? How does he come to power? The Bible says that Almighty God appoints the Antichrist. Let's look at Daniel, chapter 4, verse 14 in your Catholic Bibles and it's verse 17 in the King James: 'This sentence is by the decree of the watchers and the decision by the word of the holy ones: that the living may know that the Most High rules over the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever he will and sets up over it the basest of men.' God appoints the Antichrist over mankind! Let's look at Esther, chapter 3, verse number 1: 'After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman (most Bible scholars will tell you that King Ahasuerus symbolizes Almighty God and Haman symbolizes the Antichrist) the son of Amadathi who was of the race of Agag and he set his throne above all the princes that were with him.'

So, God appoints the Antichrist but how does He do this? Does he do it through someone on earth? and I am suggesting that is very likely the possibility and that person is Donald Trump. And why do I suggest that? Well, let's look at Isaiah, chapter 45, which I believe is about our 45th president. Verse number 1: 'Thus says the Lord to my anointed Cyrus (Cyrus is a stand-in for Donald Trump) whose right hand I have taken hold of (Almighty God is directing Donald Trump's right hand) to subdue nations before his face and to turn the backs of kings, and to open the doors before him and the gates shall not be shut.' A lot of people ask me, why does Almighty God appoint the Antichrist, why would He do such a thing to mankind? And I think there's two reasons, number one: we don't deserve any better. As it says in Daniel: 'So that people will know that the most high rules over the kingdom of men'. I think that's the first reason.

And the second reason, I think it is a test for us, the final test. We have to learn how to defeat the Antichrist and that is told to us back in Genesis 3:15 where God tells us it is the Woman who crushes the serpent, who symbolizes Satan, and we are the seed of the Woman and we crush the seed of the serpent, who is the Antichrist. And I've told you, many times on this program, the Bible tells us it is Mary's Rosary which defeats the Antichrist. And this is prefigured in the story of David versus Goliath. David chose five smooth pebbles. You know what five smooth pebbles look like? That's a reference to Mary's Rosary. David did not need five pebbles, he only needed one! Why did he choose five? Because he was telling us how to defeat the Antichrist in these End Times!

And that is my conclusion of the program today. I hope you take this to heart on Christmas Day. This coming year 2019 is going to be critical as far as the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. And we're just now seeing it beginning. I'm not saying that Recep Erdogan is the Antichrist. I don't know for sure yet. But I do think that in the coming weeks and months, there are people who are going to go into the Middle East, particularly Erdogan and Putin; it could be one of those two who are the Antichrist or someone else. But I think Donald Trump has already showed that he is playing a vital role in world affairs and in the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.
