

La Salette: Forerunner to the Antichrist Pt 5

This is the fifth program in my series on the amazing prophecies which the Blessed Mother gave to two shepherd children at La Salette, France back in 1846. And, so far we have discovered that the La Salette prophecies are divided into seven sections and each section has its own chronology, that is it begins at a specific date, usually back in the nineteenth century, and ends with an end times event such as the Millennium or Armageddon.

In this fifth section of the prophecies at La Salette, the Blessed Mother talks about a forerunner of the Antichrist and it's important to understand what a forerunner is and why we should know their identities. For example, in the Old Testament there are many prefigures of the Antichrist and if we study them we will get a good idea of what the Antichrist will be like thus when he comes on the scene we will be better able to recognize him. For example, in the Old Testament, Goliath is a prefigure of the Antichrist, and when he fights against David he is fighting against Jesus Christ. And, when David defeats him with five smooth pebbles and with a shepherd's sling, it tells us that Jesus will defeat the Antichrist with his two major weapons: Mary's Rosary and Scapular.

Another tremendous example in the Old Testament of a forerunner of the Antichrist is found in the book of Esther where Haman is the forerunner, and his ten sons are forerunners of the ten kings of the Antichrist. Some other Old Testament prefigures of the Antichrist include Holofernes and Antiochus Epiphanes. And, in the New Testament and the early days of the Church, we had people like Nero and Herod and, in fact, many of the Roman emperors who persecuted Christians. And, I would like you to please note that all of these prefigures of the Antichrist were secular leaders. Anyone who tries to tell you, for example, that the Pope or some other religious leader is the Antichrist, has not read scripture and it would be important for them to see what a forerunner of the Antichrist is really like.

And so, let's begin with section five of the amazing prophecies at La Salette: "This peace among men will be short lived". Now, the peace that Mary is referring to here is not the peace she was talking about which ended the fourth section, and that was the thousand years of peace or, in other words, the Millennium. Mary is talking about the peace that was going on at the time she gave these messages to the shepherdess, Melanie Calvat. And, Mary continues: "twenty-five years of abundant harvest will make them forget that the sins of men are the cause of all the evils which come upon this earth.” As I said before, Mary begins each of these seven sections of the La Salette prophecies with a specific year. But, this is the first time she does not identify the year, however, we can calculate the year she is talking about.

The prophecies were given in 1846, and so when you add twenty-five years of harvest to 1846, you come up with 1871. But, we have a problem. The twenty-five years of peace which Mary is prophesying about was ended by the Franco Prussian war in 1870, twenty-four years after 1846. So, how can we account for the discrepancy? Well, let's take a closer look at what Mary says: “twenty five years of abundant harvests”; she does not say “twenty five years”. So, if you count the first harvest year as 1846, remember, these prophecies were given in September of that year, and you add that year in then indeed twenty-five years of abundant harvests are completed in 1870, the year that the Franco Prussian war began.

And now, Mary continues: “a forerunner of the Antichrist”; now, I have included here three possible secular leaders who came after the year 1870 who could be candidates for the person the Blessed Mother is talking about, “with his troops gathered from several nations will fight against the true Christ, the only Savior of the world. He will shed much blood and will want to annihilate the worship of God to make himself be looked upon as a God.” And, of course, these are not the only candidates for the forerunner of the Antichrist who Mary is undoubtedly specifically talking about here. I mean, besides Hitler, who was a fairly obvious candidate, we have Stalin, we have Mao Tse-tung, we have Pol Pot. All of those were fighting against religion and they killed millions of people.

The persons I want to look at on this program are Barack Obama and Vladimir Putin. Now, you might not say that Obama has killed millions of people but he is a leader of a coalition of armies. For example, in Afghanistan, and in Libya, and now he is sending troops into Uganda to fight with the Muslim government against Christian rebels. So, I think you could say that he is anti Christian in that respect. It has always struck me as extremely ludicrous that the Nobel peace prize would be given to Barack Obama, who is a man of war, as I predicted, by the way, before he was first elected back in 2008.

It's interesting that in his Nobel Peace Prize speech, Obama used the word "war" 44 times. That is another indication he is found in Bible prophecy. He is the 44th president and he is also the "Leopard" in Daniel 7, and the last "king of the south" in Daniel chapter number 11. And, it should be noted, that here at home Obama fulfills the role as a forerunner of the Antichrist in that he is going to force all Catholic hospitals and Christian hospitals to provide their employees with free contraceptives and some of those are abortifacient. And, in his Obamacare health care plan, he is going to force people to take a chip which is, of course, the mark of the beast.

And now, Mary continues with this fifth section of the amazing prophecies of La Salette: "the earth will be struck by calamities of all kinds (in addition to plague and famine which will be widespread). There will be a series of wars until the last war", and, of course, the last war is Armageddon, "which will then be fought by the ten kings of the Antichrist all of whom will have one and the same plan and will be the only rulers of the world. Before this comes to pass, there will be a kind of false peace in the world"

I marked here the years 1945 to 2001 and I think most people would agree that those were years of general peace following World War 2 and before the 9/11 attacks which ushered in the war on terror; the United States has been continually at war since 9/11. Now, we did have the Korean war, we did have the Vietnam war and we had the first Gulf war, but, in general, I think people would say that those were relatively calm years as compared to World War 2 and as compared to the current situation.

Notice, Mary here says: "before this comes to pass". That's very interesting because Mary is changing the chronology. This is the first time she has gone back in time without noting a certain year and thus she announces the change; all the other changes in chronology were marked by a particular year. And this verifies what I have been saying all along; these seven sections are divided up by beginning with a specific year. In other words, since Mary set a pattern of going back in time by stating a specific year, in this case, since she is not stating a year, she must announce "before this comes to pass".

Also, please note, when Mary says "before this comes to pass", is she going back in time before Armageddon or is she going back to before the forerunner of the Antichrist? The reason this is important is because if this false peace comes before Armageddon but not before the forerunner of Antichrist, then this forerunner must be someone like Adolf Hitler. But, if this false peace, that is the years following World War 2, comes before the forerunner of the Antichrist, then this forerunner must be someone like Obama or Putin. As bad as Obama is, will Vladimir Putin prove to be exponentially worse? Will he be the last "king of the north" who leads the kings of the east, that is, primarily Communist China, with a two hundred million-man army which kills one third of mankind? Is he the forerunner which Mary is prophesying about here in the La Salette prophecies?

And Mary continues: “people will think of nothing but amusements. The wicked will give themselves over to all kinds of sin”. And that is continuing even today. “but the children of the holy church, the children of the faith, my true followers, they will grow in their love for God and in all the virtues most precious to me. Blessed are the souls humbly guided by the Holy Spirit. I shall fight at their side”, notice, the Blessed Mother is fighting at our side against the Antichrist, “until they reach a fullness of years. Nature cries out for vengeance upon men and she trembles with dread at what must happen to the earth stained with crime”.

Note here that Mary is again going back in time; she is changing the chronology, but this time she does not need to announce it because she indicates it by changing the tense. This is no longer in the future tense, this is in the present tense. “tremble earth, and you who proclaim yourselves as serving Jesus Christ and who, on the inside only adore yourselves, tremble for God will hand you over to his enemy because the holy places are in a state of corruption. Many convents are no longer houses of God, but the grazing grounds of Asmodeus and his like”.

For some of you who may not know who Asmodeus is I took an article from Wikipedia, so let me read you the definition: “Asmodeus is a king of demons mostly known from the deuterocanonical book of Tobit (the Catholic Bible calls this the book of Tobias) in which he is the primary antagonist. The demon is also mentioned in some Talmudic legends for instance, in the story of the construction of the temple of Solomon he was supposed by some Renaissance Christians to be the king of the nine hells. Asmodeus also is referred to as one of the seven princes of hell. In Binsfeld’s classification of demons, each one of these princes represents one of the seven deadly sins, pride, lust, envy, sloth, greed, gluttony and wrath. Asmodeus is the demon of lust and is therefore responsible for twisting people’s sexual desires”.

The only other possible forerunner of the Antichrist, who the Blessed Mother is describing in these La Salette prophecies, would be Vladimir Putin. As the last "king of the north" he will defeat Obama, the last "king of the south", in World War 3, as I've been saying all along. Obama, if he sees he will not be elected, will figure that if he wins World War 3, he would be re-elected and he probably would. The problem is, the Bible says he will not win World War 3, he will lose World War 3 to the last "king at the north"; and it's very possible that Mary is talking about Putin in these passages, and he may prove to be the most cruel and bloodthirsty tyrant of all of these. He may be the number one forerunner of the Antichrist. The next program in this series will be about the birth of the Antichrist.
