

Antichrist Identified! Miraculous Video!

This will be my third program in which I talk about this fascinating murmuration of birds video and this one will be the most amazing program because I believe this is a prophecy from Almighty God which reveals the identity of the Antichrist. Now, we've already discussed that certainly, we have an image of Vladimir Putin, and this was a prophecy of Putin rising over the United States of America and I said at that time that was the meaning of this bird murmuration. And that came true within just a few weeks when Vladimir Putin entered into the Middle East and assumed the role of leader of the world supplanting Barack Obama.

But, since then I've discovered that there are two additional faces in this murmuration of birds which are hidden from view and I want to thank two of my subscribers for bringing this to my attention. So, let me read to you what RosaryWMD wrote: "You don't see the leopard to the left of Putin in the bird murmuration? You don't see the crazy bozo looking clown face to the right of Putin? It reads from left to right: a leopard, then Putin, then the Antichrist." Well, thank you very much, RosaryWMD. Now that you pointed that out to me, I have taken a very close examination of these hidden faces and you are right.

What this video shows is not only the Antichrist as a clown but it identifies who that clown is. And now Pam Fredirick also wrote to me. She said, "You can almost make out a full body leopard to the far left of Putin's head like it is lying down." Well, thank you very much, Pam. I also see what you are saying. So let's take a closer look at these and what I am going to do, I am going to connect the dots, so-to-speak, so that you can see what I see.

Now, you may not totally agree with me or my two subscribers but I think you will find this is very interesting and if I am right, this murmuration of bird video will be one of Almighty God's greatest End Times warnings to the world if indeed it does identify the Antichrist. First of all, this leopard, as you can see, I am going to alternate between the original murmuration video and my interpretation, and the leopard appears to be fading away. Maybe that's why it's so difficult to see but I think that itself is a commentary on Barack Obama's current role in the world. Not only that but it looks like a toy leopard or a stuffed doll. Is that a commentary from heaven onto the quality of Barack Obama's leadership? I think very likely.

But the most amazing image is the number which appears on the leopard's nose. If you look closely, at first I thought it was a number 6 but in fact it is the number 8 and of course, 4 plus 4 equals 8 and, as you my regular subscribers know, Barack Obama's number in Bible Prophecy in Daniel 7:6 is 44 because he has "four heads and four wings" and he is our 44th President.

So now, let's review the amazing clown face to the right of Putin and I am going to do the same thing that I did with the leopard, I am going to connect the dots, and this image is quite a bit more complete, far more detailed and I think that as we look at the various features of the face on this clown, we will come to the conclusion that it is pointing to a specific world leader of today.

First of all, take a look at the mouth. That's a very prominent mouth on this clown face and you can see the clown's teeth. Now the upper lip is very well defined and there is a philtrum which is quite emphasized, that's the little crease in the upper lip. It's darker than the rest, and on either side of the philtrum is a darker clouded area and it's very interesting that this clouded area is formed by clouds. It's not formed by the birds, and to me, that is showing us a moustache.

Now below the teeth is the lower lip and it is quite unique in its shape and it is drooping, so-to-speak. It seems to protrude from the face. This is a very important characteristic. And below the mouth, we come to the chin. Not just any ordinary chin. This is a cleft chin. That also is a very sure sign of the particular world leader I believe this clown is representing. Now, if we look above the mouth and the teeth and the upper lip, we come to the nose. Again, a fascinating nose. It is not a clown nose. Normally on a clown you see a bulbous shape or a round form. This is much more elongated and, in fact, I believe it shows the snout of a pig. No world leader, of course, has a nose which looks like a pig but, it is slightly tilted upwards. I think that's important. But what is really amazing is there is kind of pie plate design at the end of the pig's snout. If you look very closely you will see that it is divided into seven sections.

Now, where is the number 7 associated with the Antichrist? That is because he has seven heads of blasphemy and what that refers to is the seven world's religious leaders who support the Antichrist. They have names of blasphemy because they are all apostate and I believe this sign is telling us that they are also spiritually pigs. That is what the apostasy appears to Almighty God. Now, just above the nose appear to be a set of glasses. I think he's wearing glasses, this clown, but if you google clown images, you will see that clowns almost never wear glasses. I suspect that this is to indicate some other facial feature on the Antichrist.

Now above his eyes we see what looks like a wrinkled forehead and that is quite distinct. Those lines, I have connected the dots, but I think you can see them quite clearly. His forehead slopes backwards somewhat. He seems to have fairly short hair which is combed to the rear and he has kind of like a side hair section in this part below a bald section. We are going to see that the world leader being depicted by this clown face has all of these characteristics. Now, look carefully because you may have some other ideas. I may not be right on this but I think there are just too many matches for this to be a coincidence. So, without any further ado, let's take a look at the world leader who I believe this clown is depicting and that would be Recep Erdogan, the President of Turkey.

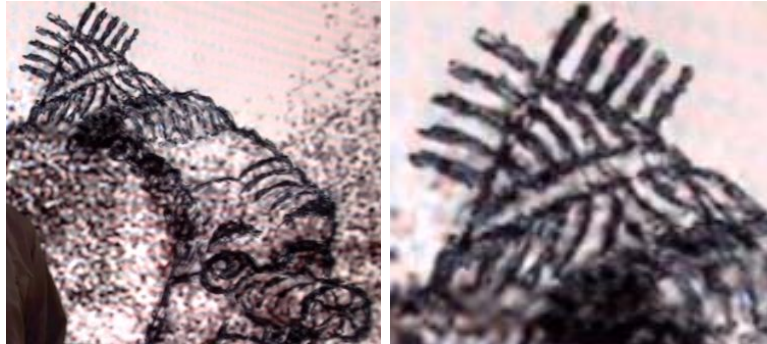

Six years ago I did a video claiming that the Antichrist would come from Istanbul, Turkey and I proved that by referencing the great prophecies of Daniel and I have considered Erdogan ever since then as a good candidate for the Antichrist. To me, this amazing murmuration of bird video confirms that analysis. I think Almighty God is telling us that, yes indeed; Erdogan is the Antichrist of the End Times.

So, let's compare his portrait with the clown caricature. First of all, take a look at that chin. This is amazing. Erdogan clearly has a cleft chin, just like the clown image. Take a look at that lower lip. The lower lip has the same shape as on the clown image and it protrudes slightly. This is typical of Erdogan but not, as far as I know, any other world leader. Now, he shows his teeth. That's somewhat unusual for a politician to show his lower teeth when he is giving a speech. His upper lip is marked by that unusual philtrum which is quite dark compared to the rest of his upper lip and, just like the clouded area on the clown; Recep Erdogan does wear a slight moustache.

Now, above the upper lip, of course, we have Erdogan's nose. Certainly, it does not look like a pig's snout; that doesn't surprise me any but it does tilt upward unlike most of your Arabic or Semitic noses which we find in the Middle East. Next we see Erdogan does not wear glasses. I have seen him wear sunglasses but I believe in this case, the circular lines under the eyes which looked like glasses on the clown's face actually show the bags which are quite prominent on Erdogan's face. Above his eyes we have his forehead which definitely does look like it has wrinkled. He has furrowed brows at times when he is giving a speech and is emphasizing certain points. It looks like his hair is short cropped, very much like the clown's face. He has hair on the side. Again, as we see on the clown face.

So, all in all, even though the clown's caricature does not exactly look like Erdogan, you probably would not have seen that if I didn't show you this photograph. Nonetheless, each individual characteristic matches Erdogan's almost perfectly. No other world leader is going to match those characteristics. I believe it is almost certain that Almighty God is telling us that Recep Erdogan, President of Turkey, is indeed the Antichrist. And, I want to look at one more fascinating part of that original caricature. If you look at the top of this clown's head, it looks like he is wearing a crown. Previously we saw that the nose on this clown had seven sections at its end and we knew the meaning of that.

We noticed that on the leopard there was the number 8 and we knew the meaning of that, and if we look closely at this crown on this clown face, it looks like it has ten horns or points, 5 on one side and 5 on the other. I don't think that's accidental either. This is one more indication that this indeed is the Antichrist that we are looking at.

To have 5 horns on one side and 5 on the other I suspect indicates that 5 of the kings who support the Antichrist will come from East or maybe China or Japan, India, maybe Indonesia, maybe Russia. Russia is mostly to the east of Jerusalem and 5 horns to the West. That would be the United States, Britain, France Italy, and Germany. I think that's very possible that the division of the ten horns of the Antichrist in this particular picture show the 5 horns from the East and the West supporting the Antichrist. It's also very interesting that that crown looks almost alien, maybe like a spaceship or a UFO, and we do know that the Antichrist will also be supported by demons.

Maybe that is what this amazing murmuration of bird image is telling us. And, as always, I would like to have you to continue examining the possibility that Erdogan is indeed the Antichrist. I want you to continue looking at this murmuration of bird video. There may very well be other hidden faces or other hidden symbols in it. If this is true, then this is the greatest, so far, warning from Almighty God about these End Times. Truly, an amazing sign.
