

Evil Symbols of the One World Religion

On this program, I want to show you some more examples of how the Vatican is being 'trampled underfoot by the Gentiles' as prophesied by Saint John way back in Revelation, chapter 11, verse 2, because the 'Holy City' 'in these End Times is not Jerusalem, the 'Holy City' is Rome. And Mary prophesied the same thing to the shepherd children at La Salette, France, when she told them: 'Rome will lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist.'

Now, back in April, Pope Francis presided over a canonization ceremony at the Vatican of Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II and the Vatican revealed at that time this horrible symbol of the One World Religion in this gigantic flower display which dominated the entire Saint Peter's Square.

It was the focal point immediately in front of the papal altar, and I explained at that time, this symbol represented a perversion of the Divine Trinity. The circle form in the center is supposed to be the Holy Spirit. As inspired by Satan, the two horns at the bottom are supposed to represent God the Father and God the Son, and of course, the Trinity is therefore represented in sexual or physical terms and that is why this is a perverted image.

And, one of my subscribers pointed out to me that the evil Vatican symbol is derived, believe it or not, from the Egyptian cow goddess, Hathor.

As you can see, the sun forms the oval or circular center shape and the two horns of the cow on either side are very similar to the Vatican symbol. Also, that symbol is derived from the image of the Hindu demon goddess, Kali Ma, except in this case, the center oval also takes the form of an eye, very possibly the all-seeing eye of the Illuminati.

So now, let's fast-forward to Seoul, South Korea, this past weekend where Pope Francis once again presided at a canonization ceremony, this time of 124 Korean martyrs. And, if you look closely at these huge television screens on both sides of the altar, you will find another expression of the One World Religion and once again, it is a perverted symbol of the Divine Trinity.

Here we see the female or oval form in the center defined by a blue flame on one side and a red flame on the other. The two horns at the bottom, instead of being on either side, are one on top of the other.

Maybe you can see this a little clearer on this white sun cap. Practically everyone of the million people in attendance at this event wore this symbol on their person, and some wore the white sun cap and some wore an orange cap; I believe that was possibly a rain cap. As you can see, just about everyone in this huge crowd wore this symbol even the choir and the choir director.

Everyone was displaying this evil symbol of the One World Religion and even in the candles, the center candle on either side of the papal altar, showed a variation of this symbol. The red flame and the blue flame also symbolize God the Father and God the Son.

If you have watched my several videos on the inherent trinities In the Universe, of the three primary colors, red is a symbol for Jesus, blue is a symbol for God the Father and yellow represents the Holy Spirit. And that brings us up to the most important expression of this One World Religion symbol. This is the one which the Masons, who have taken over the Vatican, want you to remember.

And don't forget, this event was televised worldwide. Notice here that the cross is superimposed upon by the One World Religion symbol. Maybe, if we take a closer look, you'll see what I mean.

The promoted idea is that the cross is no longer relevant and this perverted symbol of the One World Religion is about to take over.

This particular symbol of the cross dominated by the One World Religion symbol was worn by the Cardinals at this event, but not by the ordinary priests; they wore on their stoles the same One World Religion symbol that was worn by the people on their sun visors and on their rain caps.

This image of the cross dominated by the One World Religion symbol is the one that was also displayed on the altar by the Cardinals. Incidentally, please note that the Cardinal is sitting in because I will come back to that in a few minutes.

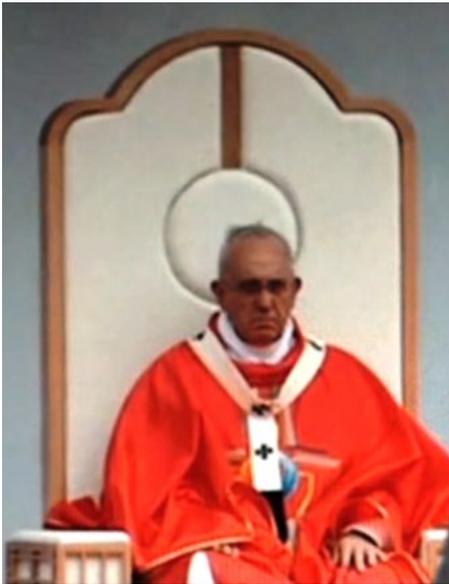

And now, let's take a closer look at this strange image. Notice first of all that the cross consists of three thin horizontal lines and three very thin vertical lines. That is to indicate that the cross is fading away. Also, note that the lines are wavy. That is to indicate that the cross is weak compared to the straight rigid lines of a true and simple cross.

In this picture, we see the Cardinals taking Communion and the false symbol is very prominent.

I'm not sure exactly what the Pope is wearing on his vestments; it looks like another variation of the image but it really is not too clear, at least in this picture. However, I do want you to take a note of the chair which the Pope is sitting in.

Let's take a closer look because this is another very revealing picture.

First of all, notice that the circle or feminine form forms a halo for the Pope's head. This is not an accident, people. Remember, the chairs which the Cardinals sat in did not feature this halo around their heads. Secondly, please notice that this chair itself is another representation of the One World Religion symbol. The circular image is surrounded by two phallic shapes on either side. None of this is accidental, believe me.

And now I want to show you how the Vatican simply cannot bring themselves to show you a true cross: and here we see the cross over the main altar.

First of all, please note: it is not a crucifix, as we traditionally find in all Catholic Churches. And this cross itself is not a true cross: it has a hollowed-out shape where the body of our Lord should be shown. This is not 'the old rugged cross'.

And on the day previous to the canonization ceremony, Pope Francis presided over a huge Mass in a stadium and once again we see an unusual cross; in this case, it looks like a plus sign located inside of a circle but, if we take a close look at this very weird white cross, we see that it is all chipped and dented, and broken into pieces. Is this what the Vatican is trying to tell us will happen to the cross when they institute their One World Religion symbol?

However, we need to remember, as I have said many times on this program, God will not leave us orphans. He has provided us a solution in the person of His Mother, His spouse and His daughter, and of course, I am referring to the Blessed Virgin Mary. She is the mother of Jesus, the spouse of the Holy Spirit and the daughter of God the Father and she will defeat this evil, One World Religion.

Please note this most famous painting of Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe, painted by God Almighty Himself and given to Saint Juan Diego. Notice that Mary is blotting out the sun of the Egyptian goddess, Hathor and she is standing on the crescent of the Hindu goddess, Kali Ma. None of this is accidental. Mary is the one who is going to crush the serpent, as prophesied way back in Genesis 3:15. Also, please notice in this amazing image how the angel at Mary's feet very discreetly lifts up the hem of her garment and shows us her foot because it is her foot which is going to do the crushing of Satan.
