

New Satanic Flag for Obama Campaign

I'm going to skip my normal introduction and ending to this video because this is just a brief commentary on a new flag created for the Obama campaign. Up here on my left we have the official logo of the Obama campaign, and that's a big "O" which, of course, stands for him and below that there are several stripes which indicate the homosexual movement, in other words, the rainbow flag. And below Obama's logo we have 2 stripes and 3 stripes which look much more like streaks of blood.

Some people don't like this kind of perversion of the American flag because it is very satanic. First of all, the big "O" looks like the Illuminati "all seeing eye", which is very similar to the "all seeing eye" on your dollar bill. And, of course, as by regular subscribers know, the 2 stripes over 3 represent the Antichrist because 2 over 3 is the number .666. Now, I doubt very much if the designers of this flag really knew what they were doing. I don't think they wanted a satanic flag with satanic imagery but maybe they consider that perfect for the Obama campaign?
