

Obama Tweets Gay Flag "Leopard"

By now, most of you are probably aware of this amazing gay flag blown into the shape of a leopard and posted by President Barack Obama on his Twitter page.

And of course you, as my subscribers know, Barack Obama is the Leopard as found in Bible prophecy. And of course he posted his message on the flag: "Marriage Equality. Now the law of the land." And that last word, "land", is very significant, as I will explain in a minute.

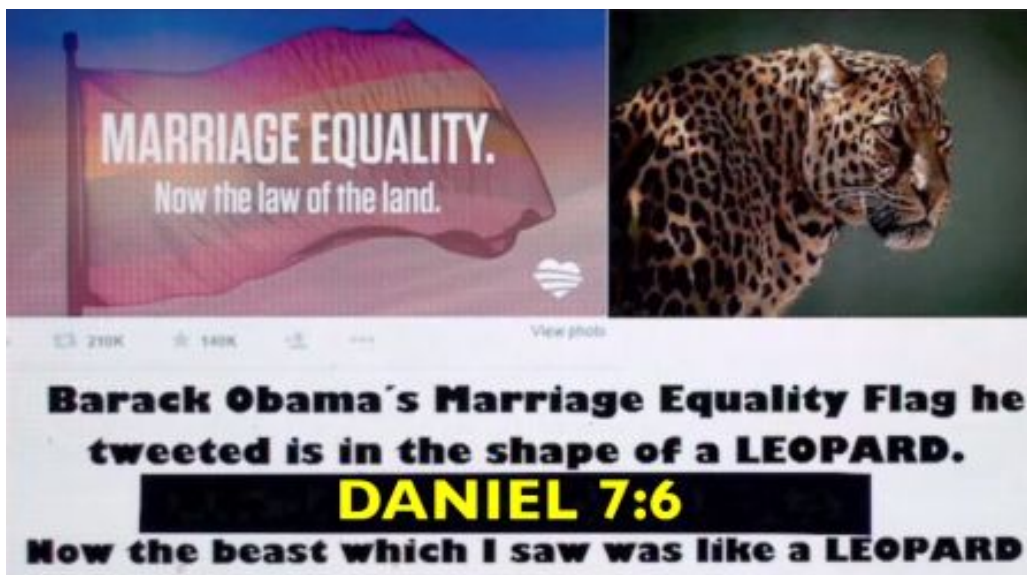

You can easily see the leopard; I mean the ear is very obvious at the top and the eye shape is right next to the "y" in the word "equality". The nose and mouth are quite obvious. So what is the significance of Obama posting this image of a gay flag leopard on his Twitter page? Now, I'm not the first to discover this. If you look at Steven Fletcher's website, he compares this gay flag leopard with a real leopard and you can see the comparison is quite obvious.

Unfortunately Steven Fletcher and most others who have observed this gay flag leopard do not understand the Biblical significance. As you can see, Barack Obama has got listed on the top: "June 26th," which is of course the day of infamy in America. It will go down in history as the day the Supreme Court legalized sodomy as marriage. I don't know how they feel they have the right to redefine marriage; they did not define marriage in the first place!

And then below that Obama says "Retweet to spread the word" and the hashtag is "#love wins" but of course it should be sodomy wins. And here is where Steven Fletcher, and everyone else I have seen on YouTube, makes a mistake. He says, "Barack Obama's Marriage Equality Flag he tweeted is in the shape of a Leopard." So Steven Fletcher, I congratulate you on seeing that. I don't know, maybe it was one of your subscribers.

But then he quotes Revelation 13:2 and that is a huge error. The beast in Revelation is the Antichrist. He only looks like the leopard; he also has characteristics of the bear and the lion. But the beast in Daniel 7:6 is a leopard and that is the leopard which refers to Barack Obama. Now what we need to do is cross out what Steven Fletcher has there, because it is not Revelation 13:2, and put in Daniel 7:6 because this is a Prophecy about Barack Obama with "four heads and four wings" and I told you this seven years ago, July of 2008, before Obama was elected.

I said Obama will be elected because he is the Leopard in Daniel 7. He will have "four heads and four wings" and that refers to him being the 44th President. He will be given dominion, as Daniel prophesied, because he will become the leader of the Free World. And he will look like a leopard because he is partially black and partially white in his racial makeup. So this gay flag leopard on Obama's Twitter page is verifying who he is: he is the third beast, NOT the fourth beast. The fourth beast in Daniel is the Antichrist, the same as the beast in Revelation 13:2. What is the significance for America? Because in Daniel, the leopard signifies both a king and a kingdom: in other words, both Obama and the United States.
