

Bible Prophecy 2014: Enoch and Elijah

This will be part 8 in my series on the possible fulfilments of Bible prophecy in this new year of 2014, and I want to specifically talk about the return of Enoch and Elijah. I believe they have already returned; but when will they manifest themselves in the flesh? One of the reasons we know that the two witnesses must be Enoch and Elijah is because they are the only two individuals in the entire Bible who never died. Scripture says that Enoch was translated to heaven and the great Prophet Elijah went to heaven in a fiery chariot: the chariot of Israel.

I predicted four years ago, right here on YouTube, that several extremely important prophetic events would occur in the Fall of 2010 to start the Seven Years of Tribulation, and among them was World War III and the return of Enoch and Elijah, the two witnesses of the End Times; however, I was just as surprised as most other people at how undramatic these events turned out to be. In fact, ever since then, I have been expecting Enoch and Elijah to reveal themselves publicly at any time, but I have now come to the conclusion that will never happen. I believe they will manifest themselves in a secret fashion and they have been here ever since the Fall of 2010.

So let's look and see what scripture says Enoch and Elijah will do in chapter 11, verse 6, of the Book of Revelation: 'They have power to shut heaven that it rain not in the days of their prophecy:' and we have seen a lot of very serious droughts, right now in California, 'and they have power over waters to turn them to blood...' And every since the Fall of 2010, when Enoch and Elijah returned, as I had predicted, we have been getting many, many examples of lakes, streams, ponds, even rain turning to a blood red color. '...And to strike the earth with all plagues as often as they will.' I believe we have seen that in all of these fish, bird, and animal die-offs; and yet we have not seen Enoch and Elijah return in the flesh. And they must return in the flesh if they are going to die and fulfill the Bible requirement that 'it is appointed once for man to die.'

One of the most amazing proofs that Enoch and Elijah have indeed returned, is when Elijah proclaimed 'I am here' and if you remember, he said that in the Australian fire tornado back on 11th September 2012. Please remember that date, by the way, that is very significant: that was the 11th anniversary of the terror attacks in New York City. And that fire tornado also occurred at the same the Benghazi attack occurred on our Embassy in Libya, and four Americans were killed. That fire tornado not only revealed that the Prophet Elijah is here but it was also a warning to America specifically. That's why Elijah spoke English.

But, if Enoch and Elijah are here, they have very little time left to reveal themselves publicly. If they came in the Fall of 2010, as I claim, their 1260 days of prophesying will be up in May of this year, 2014. Let's look at chapter 11, verse number 3 of the Book of Revelation: 'And I will give unto my two witnesses,' now this is Enoch and Elijah, 'and they shall prophesy 1260 days.' The Book of Revelation also says that 1260 days is the same as 42 months and is the same as 3 1/2 years, 'clothed in sackcloth.' Well, this last phrase is very interesting. What does that mean, 'clothed in sackcloth?'

Normally we would think that means they are in mourning or they are doing penance, but that is not the job for prophets. Remember when Jonah prophesied to Nineveh, he did not show repentance, he did not mourn, but the people of Nineveh had to mourn and repent. This word 'sackcloth' is indicating something else. 'Sackcloth' means that they are hiding their identity. The 'sackcloth' is keeping them incognito, and this is one of the meanings for the word 'sackcloth,' although not as well known as the other meanings.

Let's look at the Bible and see where these other alternate meanings of 'sackcloth' are found. In I Kings, chapter 21, verse 7: 'When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and fasted. He lay in sackcloth and went around meekly.' In other words, King Ahab hid his identity, although everyone undoubtedly knew who he was; if you were a stranger, you would not have recognized him as the king.

And in Jonah chapter 3 verse 6: 'When Jonah's warning reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust.' If you were a stranger coming to Nineveh, and you saw the king, in sackcloth and in the dust, you would say: 'this is a beggar.' The 'sackcloth' in both these cases hid their real identities.

Next, let's look at Isaiah, chapter 50, verse 31: 'I clothe the heavens with darkness and make sackcloth its covering.' So once again, 'sackcloth' is used to hide, in this case, the heavens. And Revelation, chapter 6, verse 12: 'I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair, the whole moon turned blood red.' Once again, in this case, 'sackcloth' even hides the sun.

If I am right, the prophets Enoch and Elijah will never reveal themselves publicly because the Bible says they 'prophecy 1260 days clothed in sackcloth.' So how will we ever know that they were indeed Enoch and Elijah if they are masquerading as someone else? And we will finally understand who they were after they die and are taken up to heaven.

Let me give you a possible scenario. This 1260 days will be up the last week of May and the first week of June because as I said, Enoch returned on November 23rd, 2010, which was the start of World War III, as I predicted, when North Korea attacked South Korea, and Elijah returned on December 2nd during that great forest fire in Israel. So between May 23rd and June 2nd of this year, a very interesting event will occur: Pope Francis is going to visit Israel. What happens if Pope Francis, and well let's say, Benjamin Netanyahu, were assassinated? Remember in that iPad commercial, there are two who are shot.

And let's say after three days, Pope Francis and Benjamin Netanyahu are raised from the dead and they go up to heaven. Only then would people say: 'Oh my goodness! Those were the two prophets, Enoch and Elijah!' Now please understand, I am just using Pope Francis and Prime Minister Netanyahu as a possible example of how Enoch and Elijah could be alive today, and we would not understand who they were until after they died.

But you must admit, all the world's eyes will be on Jerusalem at that time. It could well be that some other prominent Christian and Jewish leaders are, in fact, Enoch and Elijah, and they will die in Jerusalem at this time, perhaps through a terrorist attack. And if they are raised after three days, all of us would then recognize them to have been the two witnesses of the End Times. And this would fulfill Bible prophecy in that they did come back to die, just as 'it is appointed once for all men to die,' but at the same time, we would not know who they were until after they had been taken up to heaven, again as prophesied.

So now that we know the real meaning of the word 'sackcloth' as far as the two prophets go and that it is meant to hide their identity until after they die. Is this phenomenon going to occur definitely during May or June of this year 2014? And I am not saying that will definitely happen. Perhaps the start of the 1260 days or 42 months occurs later in December of 2010 because that's when the bird and animal die-offs first started. That would mean that Enoch and Elijah would die and resurrect later in June.

Or did the start of the 1260 days, in which the two prophets prophesy, begin when Elijah announced 'I am here' in that fire tornado? And as I said, that occurred on the 11th September 2012. I am going to put a link below to that amazing video by Paul Begley where he discovered that the Prophet Elijah said 'I am here' in that Australian fire tornado. And that video was shown on the Today Show, Good Morning America and around the world, but nobody else heard Elijah say that or at least they refused to report it; but it's very important for you to hear that. That is the best proof I've heard so far that Enoch and Elijah, the two witnesses, are indeed here on planet Earth right now.
