

Porn at the Denver International Airport

Welcome to Revelation Unraveled. I'm your host William Tapley also known as the third Eagle of the Apocalypse and the co-prophet of the End Times.

(Anderson Cooper speaking) It's quite a resume isn't it? Quite a resume indeed.

Now wait a minute Mr. Anderson Cooper. I know you are making fun of me. Last week you mocked me, by putting me on your Ridiculist.

Time now for the Ridiculist and tonight we're adding a gentleman by the name of William Tapley.

The reason you are making fun of me, is because I made a video pointing out, that there are sexual images in a mural at the Denver International Airport. Now let me assure you, I do have credentials of understanding art I suspect, a whole lot more than you do. I have received a Bachelor's degree from Columbia University, for example. I majored in Fine Arts. I did graduate work at the Syracuse University, School of Architecture. I've also studied at SUNY at New Paltz, and I even spent a month at the Art Students League in New York. In all four of those colleges and universities, I did artwork from live models, both male and female. For example, this work here I did as a student. I have studied art. I have studied male and female nude models. I know what I'm talking about Mr. Cooper.

The fact is, Mr. Leo Tanguma, the artist of the Denver International Airport murals, has embedded hidden sexual images in his painting, and not just sexual images. This is pornography. That is why he has made it a secret, and Mr. Cooper I am no prude. I do not oppose nudity in art. Michelangelo did nudes of both men and women, and his art is in the Sistine Chapel where the Pope says Mass. Art with nudes can even be in churches. However, there is a fine line between art and pornography. In fact in the Sistine Chapel, some people think Michelangelo crossed that line, but we usually give artists the benefit of the doubt, but Mr. Tanguma has not only crossed that line, he has embedded pornography in his mural, and this is why he hides what he is doing. I thought I had made that clear. Here is a clip from your program Mr. Cooper.

And on this program I will point out, that many of them are phallic symbols. (Anderson Cooper speaking) Say what now? I know what you're thinking. This sounds like another crazy conspiracy theory from some loon on the internet, but before we rush to judgment, let's hear the man out, because it just so happens William has some evidence, oh yeah.

This sign on the penguins cage, constitutes a phallic symbol. Please notice that the Latin name for this bird includes the word "impennis". Now that is not accidental.

The bird standing upright is phallic. The shape of the sign is phallic, and even the name is phallic. (Anderson Cooper laughs). It's really not that funny Mr. Cooper. You ought to read the nasty comments that the YouTube trolls posted on that video. In fact on this video, I am not even going to use the p-word. I am going to say private parts instead.

Now let's take another look at Mr. Tanguma's mural. Now in Tanguma's mural, the male and the female parts, it's their positioning, that makes this a pornographic image. But maybe my arguments are not all that convincing for you Mr. Cooper.

Now I must say I don't find William's argument all that convincing and I'm kind of disappointed.

Okay, so let me spell it out for you Mr. Cooper, or in this case, let me draw it out for you. Now if you had taken art class Mr. Cooper, you would know that this is a female private part and this is the male private part, but I'm going to mark it for you, so that you may see it very clearly. Now let me assure you, that Mr. Leo Tanguma is no Michelangelo.

This is pornography. This is not art. And so Mr. Cooper, it is time for you to take me off your Ridiculist. What if the artist has a pang of conscience some day, and admits what he did. Then you are going to look ridiculous, and I will be exonerated.

And Mr. Cooper I am going to send you a copy of my free book. I hope this address is correct. Anderson Cooper 360, 1 Time Warner Centre, New York, New York 10019- 8012.
